From the President

CONVENTION . . . few things get me as "Phired Up" about being a member of the National Fraternity of Kappa Delta Rho as attending the Williams Leadership Academy and National Convention each summer. Why do I love it? Because I get to spend time with my Brothers celebrating the successes of our Fraternity; I get engaging in important conversations about how we can overcome the challenges that face our Brotherhood; I get to share my passion for the Fraternity with the undergraduates; and I inevitably learn something new each year.

Some of this year's highlights, for me, included the following:

- The Williams Leadership Academy - This year, we tried something a little different and focused an entire day on one topic . . . recruitment. Josh Orendi from Phired Up Productions spent the day challenging our undergraduate Brothers to envision what they want their chapters to be like, while teaching them strategies and techniques to help them actively recruit young men who can help them make that vision a reality. As we all know, recruitment is the lifeblood of Kappa Delta Rho. Without members, the Fraternity ceases to exist. Our undergraduate Brothers left Josh's program with goals for their chapter's fall recruitment, a plan to achieve those goals and a great deal of excitement, optimism, and energy. While these Brothers have good plans and great attitudes, they can still use your help! Given the pace of life today, it is understandable that relatively few alumni will be able to attend chapter recruitment events. However, you can still help. In this magazine you will find a referral form. Is your son, a friend of his, or a young person from your neighborhood or your hometown going to an institution that has a KDR chapter? Then fill out the form and send it into the National Office so the staff can pass that lead on to the chapter. While the young men you refer are under no obligation to join, you may just be introducing them to one of the best experiences they will ever have in their life!
- Expansion - While in Indianapolis, I also had the opportunity to meet the young men from our expansion groups at Christopher Newport University, York College, and Virginia Tech. Kappa Delta Rho can be proud of the caliber of young men that we have carrying the flag forward on these campuses.
- The Chapter Awards Luncheon - I was privileged to help recognize the many impressive accomplishments of our undergraduate chapters. Often, we hear a great deal of negativity about college students in general, and fraternity men in particular. It was refreshing to focus time on the good that our undergraduate Brothers are doing. Congratulations to all of the award winners!
- NCCA Hall of Champions - This year's alumni event was pretty unique. Not only did we have some time for casual conversation about KDR with alumni from across the country, but we were in the NCAA Hall of Champions! You would have had to absolutely hate all college athletics not to have had a good time.
- The Convention Meeting - The delegates to this year's convention meeting had the unfortunate pleasure of sitting through my first meeting as chair (thank you for your understanding and patience). It was definitely a learning experience, which will help me next year. At this year's convention meeting, the Kappa Delta Rho Foundation announced a Recruitment Scholarship Program. Beginning this year, each new KDR member who attains at least a 3.0 GPA during their pledge semester will receive a $100 academic scholarship from the Foundation. This program makes a statement about Kappa Delta Rho's commitment the academic progress of our members. Also, it will be a valuable asset to our chapters as they recruit. In addition to thanking the Foundation for moving forward with this program, I would also like to thank each and every member and friend of the Fraternity who contribute to the Foundation's various giving programs. Without your continued support, the Foundation would not be able to make programs like this one possible, nor would it be able to provide over $55,000 in scholarships to help our members further their education.

- The Ordo Honoris Banquet - I stood in quiet awe of men whose lives and achievements I can only hope to emulate. These gentlemen are living proof that Honor Super Omnia is more than just a catchy slogan, it's a principle for living your life. It was my honor and privilege to be part of their enshrinement ceremony.

A final personal highlight for me coming out of this year's convention was being elected to a two-year term as president. It was an honor serving last year and I look forward to working with the National Board of Directors, Staff, Foundation trustees, alumni volunteers, and undergraduate members as we seek to overcome the challenges that face our Brotherhood by capitalizing on our strengths and seizing new opportunities.

I shared my personal highlights from this year's convention with you not to boast or brag, but to help make the point that the Williams Leadership Academy and National Convention is an AWESOME experience. Regardless of whether you are an alumnus or an undergrad, this event has something for everyone. Besides, where else can you gather with Brothers from across the country to celebrate our common bond: Kappa Delta Rho. I guarantee that if you attend next year's Williams Leadership Academy and National Convention you will have fun, learn something, and get "Phired Up" about Kappa Delta Rho.

I hope to see you in Delaware!

From the Executive Director

Make the most of your membership!

By all means . . . make the most of your membership. To me, and most KDRs, this is a simple, but very powerful statement. In fact, I did not understand the "true" meaning of that phrase until I experienced it for myself — especially with regards to Kappa Delta Rho.

I joined Kappa Delta Rho with great hopes of filling a void that I knew was missing from my lackluster life — and my college experience up to that point — but I really did not know what to expect. I understood that fraternities were supposed to help you grow and mature, but I did not understand the deeper meaning and benefit behind a fraternity. I went through a brief education about the history of Kappa Delta Rho, but to be completely honest, I doubt those men, who were seniors when I was pledging, really remembered me.

The following year, I was appointed to be the chapter praetor, because the Brother elected to that position did not return to college. That position and intramural sports were the extent of my involvement in chapter activities. I essentially did the bare minimum and went through all the motions of being a KDR gentleman. As the year progressed, I realized that I was not satisfied with my Kappa Delta Rho experience, but, I could not figure out why. That changed the following year after I had been convinced to run for, and elected to, the office of consul. By necessity, my involvement in the chapter increased exponentially — that tends to happen to chapter consuls.

Sometime in that same time period it hit me that the reason I had not been happy with my Kappa Delta Rho experience was because I had not been actively doing anything to contribute to my experience as a Kappa Delta Rho Brother. Over time, I expanded my involvement with the Fraternity beyond the chapter level. With increased involvement, I learned the more I did in the Fraternity, the more I got out of the Fraternity. Finally, I understood what it meant to "make the most of your membership."

When I encounter any young Brother who is discouraged or feels like something is missing from his or her fraternal experience, the first advice I give is to get more involved. I firmly believe there is a proportional relationship to your level of involvement with Kappa Delta Rho to your level of satisfaction with your experience in Kappa Delta Rho. It is just that simple!

That very special relationship does not end the moment you become an alumnus member of the chapter. The more you continue to stay involved with Kappa Delta Rho after you graduate, the more you will continue to grow as a result of your membership in Kappa Delta Rho.

There is no shortage of volunteer opportunities within Kappa Delta Rho on a national, regional, and chapter level. Volunteer opportunities are available to help (1) coordinate regional alumni associations, (2) expansion efforts, (3) website development, (4) graphic design, and (5) marketing, to name a few. Additionally, if your interests gravitate toward working hands-on with chapters and collegiate members, you can volunteer as a regional senator or you can work with a chapter in your area. Make no mistake, every KDR chapter needs sound and consistent advice and counsel from alumni, and every chapter needs an active and supportive alumni corporation.

In my travels, I meet a number of alumni who feel they are not at a point in their life where they can donate a lot of money each year to the KDR Foundation, but they do have time and talent they can donate. This

Are We Congruent?

In a 2005 interview with The Oracle, the University of Southern Florida's student newspaper, Tom Kane, director of residence life services, said,

"If you ask any fraternity and sorority what they stand for, it's philanthropy. That's really cool; that's very admirable. Brotherhood, leadership – they'll throw a million adjectives and adverbs at you, but if you say 'Do you want to be dry?' (They say,) 'Oh no, that'll kill the whole organization.' Well then, why isn't alcohol somewhere in those top 10 words that this is what it's all about?"

Unfortunately, Mr. Kane is not alone in his criticism of fraternities and sororities. Over the years, university administrators, educational researchers and the public at large have questioned whether or not the college fraternity movement had outlived its usefulness. These criticisms came to a head in 2003 when a group of college and university presidents, fraternity and sorority executive directors and representatives from a variety of coordinating organizations met at the Franklin Square in Washington, DC, and issued a document entitled A Call for Values Congruence. This document notes the apparent disconnect between the stated values and ideals of fraternities and sororities and the actual behaviors of some of their undergraduate members nationwide and proposes several recommendations aimed at lessening the disparity.

Oftentimes criticism of this nature is met with a negative response, particularly from undergraduate members, but also from some alumni. They say things like "The administration hates Greeks;" "Why do they pick on us;" "They expect more from us than from (fill in the blank student organization/athletic team), "We're a social fraternity." But if you look at actual events that have occurred on college and university campuses across this country you will see that young men and women are being seriously injured, and even dying, in the name of fraternity. Greek-letter organizations are guests on the campuses of their host institutions and if they wish to continue to exist and silence their critics, more must be done to ensure congruence between the stated values of the organization and the behavior of its members.

In order for a change of this nature to occur, a paradigm shift is required. For far too long, members of the greater fraternity and sorority community have allowed Animal House antics to be perpetuated as the primary image those outside of our chapters see. This mentality is perpetuated, in some small part, because most Greek-letter organizations continue to refer to themselves as "social" fraternities/sororities. When you ask someone for the first thing that comes to mind when they hear the word "social," they respond with the word "party." However, Baird's Manual of American College Fraternities offers a different interpretation of the word "social."

"The fraternity, whether for men or women — the latter typically known as a sorority — is considered a general fraternity if it offers membership to students without regard to field of study, class year or grade attainment above the typical minimum requirement.

"General fraternities are commonly called 'social' fraternities, but while the initial use of the term social referred to social development, the term as been mistakenly thought to refer to social functions by members and non-members alike. Actually, the intent was to suggest that a student needed to be 'socialized,' that is, directed with proper consideration of one's future responsibilities in society. (p. I-9)"

kind of donation IS a "treasure." It IS just as valuable as the financial support many alumni give annually to the Foundation. Not only is it valuable, but it is an incredibly rewarding experience, as well. Working with collegiate members and seeing them learn, grow, and succeed can be one of the most pleasurable experiences in an alumnus' life - and KDR undergraduates want and need your support. Being involved, you can have a direct connection and understanding to what is happening in the Fraternity today.

In this issue, our new vice president of alumni affairs, Jerry Stebbins, outlines some future KDR plans for alumni outreach. I know you have many ideas that could help Brother Stebbins, and a valuable first step would be for you to e-mail him with your suggestions.

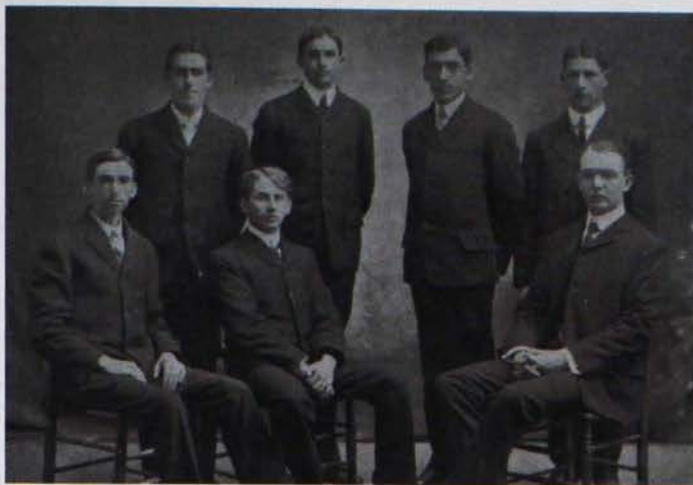

Getting involved is just the initial first step. Whether you e-mail Brother Stebbins with a suggestion, show up at an alumni event, or contact the national office and ask what you can do to help, take that initial first step, today. Become involved . . . recharge your awareness of what KDR means to you and appreciate what it means to undergraduates who follow in your footsteps. As I have learned, becoming active and involved is the critical first step to making the most of your lifelong KDR membership. KDR is not a one-time experience . . . it is an experience for a lifetime!

In order to be true to KDR's Founding Fathers' principles and values, our members must recognize that Kappa Delta Rho is a values-based membership organization whose purpose is to prepare young men to be leaders in society. That's not to say that we shouldn't have a little fun along the way, but if partying and drinking are the only reasons why someone would want to join one of our chapters, then that chapter has missed the boat and the National Fraternity and alumni should step in and right the ship.

To get a sense of the values upon which Kappa Delta Rho was founded, one needs to look no further than our open motto – Honor Super Omnia. How fortunate we are to have this simple phrase, which simultaneously serves as an expectation of membership and a value of the Fraternity, as our motto. When one strives to place Honor Above All Things, they are simply trying to do the right thing. An honorable man is a man of integrity, he is a man of his word who does what he says he will do and he treats all people fairly, with dignity and respect.

Our motto is one of the standards by which the outside world judges the conduct of our members. Another is The Precepts of Kappa Delta Rho. Adopted at the 2006 National Convention, The Precepts state:

"As a Brother of the National Fraternity of Kappa Delta Rho, I have but one aim: to lead an honorable life."

To this end, I am bound by my words and actions to:

"Embrace the principles and spirit of the Kappa Delta Rho Gentleman, treating all those I encounter with dignity and respect;

"Work diligently in the pursuit of my education, understanding that I am a student first and that the quest for knowledge is an endeavor which will last a lifetime;

"Meet all of my obligations to the Fraternity in a timely manner, so as to ensure that I am doing my share and that I am not a burden to my brothers;

"Engage in the service of mankind, not for the praise or recognition that such service may bring, but because it is the right thing to do;

"Serve as my brothers' keeper, holding them accountable for their actions as they hold me accountable for mine, and

"Support my Alma Mater, that she may view Kappa Delta Rho as a partner in the development of her students."

I understand that membership in Kappa Delta Rho is a lifelong privilege that is contingent upon my willingness to incorporate the values of the Fraternity into my daily life and uphold the oath I have sworn. As I speak these words I once again affirm to my Brothers, and all who hear me, that I am a KDR Gentleman and I will place Honor Above All Things.

Gone are the days when improper behavior will be looked upon with a blind eye because "boys will be boys." It only takes one member to make one bad decision that could lead to a loss so significant that Kappa Delta Rho will exist no more. If we wish to see our Brotherhood through its second century of existence, then we must do all that we can to ensure that our members act in congruence with the stated values of the Fraternity and those who act incongruently must face appropriate consequences for their actions.

Correction

In the recent edition of Foundation Focus, we inadvertently included the name of Brother Chris Miller, Tau Alpha '95, as a donor to the Centennial Recognition Program, and failed to include the name of Brother Tom McComb, Nu '59, as a donor to the program.

Vice President of Alumni Affairs

Brothers,

Please let me introduce myself; I am Brother Jerry Stebbins, Phi Alpha '88. Recently, I was elected to the National Fraternity Board of Directors and have eagerly accepted the position of vice president of alumni affairs.

In my other life, I work at Washington & Jefferson College as the associate dean of student life. That is a big title for chief disciplinary officer and advisor to the six fraternities and sororities on campus. I am constantly challenging my students to live up to the principles and foundations of their respective fraternities. To that end, I explain that the Kappa Delta Rho motto is "Honor Above All Things" . . . and then I get the blank stare. Even when I work with our own chapters . . . blank stares . . . an inability to explain it.

My first request of my fellow Brothers is to please send me letters or e-mails explaining how Kappa Delta Rho and being a KDR Gentleman and striving to live an honorable life have affected your life. We will publish a number of these each Quill & Scroll. I want to be able to provide concrete evidence of events in our lives where a Brother came to a crossroads and chose the path of honor. Try to recall what the exact situation was, why you believe you chose the path you did, and was there a reward for striving to be "the KDR Gentleman." Honor Super Omnia is real and not just a catchy phrase we should throw around. We demonstrate our honor every day and in some cases, do not realize the many ways Kappa Delta Rho has touched our lives.

In other news, Kappa Delta Rho is setting sail for Alaska on the KDR Cruise. We will be sailing on July 14-21, 2007. All alumni are invited to invite friends and family as the Brothers of Kappa Delta Rho visit our 49th state. Look for more information at www.alumnivacations.net or call Tom Kepler or Craig Martin at Cruisin' for information and reservations - (610) 341-1979 or (800) 506-7447. Trip prices begin at $1,595, including air from many major cities in the United States.

The gauntlet is being thrown down! On August 1, 2007, the first Kappa Delta Rho National Fraternity Golf Challenge will be held at Chisel Creek Golf Club in Landenberg, PA, in coordination with the Kappa Delta Rho National Convention and Leadership Academy. Look for more information at www.kdr.com. Opportunities for hole sponsorship and the chance to win a Harley Davidson on a hole-in-one are all being planned.

On Sunday, August, 3, 2007, bring the family out to the ballpark. Mark your calendar if you live in the Greater Philly, Baltimore, and Washington, DC, areas. More details will be posted at www.kdr.com.

Please let us know if you have an open alumni event that all Brothers of Kappa Delta Rho are welcome to attend. We will post it in the alumni page of the website.

Finally, we are eager to assist groups of Brothers who wish to establish geographically oriented alumni chapters. It is my understanding that the New Jersey area and Washington, DC, are growing with every event. Support these efforts and come out to meet some wonderful Brothers. You may be surprised who you didn't know was a Brother.

If you have any questions, concerns, or information, e-mail me at alumni@kdr.com. I look forward to serving you over the next few years.

2006 Elmon Williams Leadership Academy and 95th National Convention

On July 20-23, Kappa Delta Rho returned to the Crossroads of America, Indianapolis, Indiana, and raced into our second century with the 2006 Elmon Williams Leadership Academy and the 95th Kappa Delta Rho National Convention.

ON THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, delegates took part in the Elmon Williams Leadership Academy. Students and alumni attendees alike were treated to dynamic and relevant presentations by speakers such as Phired Up Productions' Josh Orendi who spoke on using soft skills and networking to help grow the organization by a process of Dynamic Recruitment. Interfraternal Brother and Theta Chi Executive Director Dave Westol presented the dangers of hazing and tragedies that can come from it. University of Delaware's Matt Lenno gave an insightful presentation on financial management, and Kappa Delta Rho National President Shawn Hoke gave a stirring presentation about "solving the Groundhog Day cycle" by focusing on the values and standards on which Kappa Delta Rho was founded. Along with the general sessions, students participated in smaller breakout sessions that were facilitated by a talented group of volunteers comprised of Scott Bradley, Zeta Beta '99; Jeff Howard, Tau Beta '95; Matt Lenno, Alpha Beta '95; Jerry Stebbins, Phi Alpha '88; Pete Tartaro, Lambda Beta '00; and Matt Tessier, Omega Alpha '93.

Friday afternoon was the Chapter Awards luncheon where chapters were recognized for their hard work over the past school year in areas such as recruitment, philanthropy, social service, alumni relations, campus involvement, faculty relations, and academics.

An Indianapolis-area alumni event took place at the NCAA Hall of Champions on Friday night with more than 100 people in attendance. The event was a hit, with the attendees enjoying the fellowship of Kappa Delta Rho and taking in the history of college athletics. At the alumni event, a silent auction was held that raised $1,000 for Riley's Hospital for Children.

Saturday morning was the National Convention business meeting. At the Ordo Honoris banquet on Saturday night, the O.D. Roberts Award for Chapter Improvement was presented to our chapters at Purdue University and the University of Toledo. Our Grand Consul's Award for Chapter of the Year was awarded to our chapter at Tarleton State University.

NIC Vice President of Leadership Education John Shertzer leads a discussion with several alumni during the alumni academy on Friday afternoon.

The night concluded with eight distinguished Brothers of Kappa Delta Rho being inducted into the Ordo Honoris. They were Gregory W. Booth, Omega '70 (Indiana University of Pennsylvania); Jonathan R. Hanlon, Alpha '93 (Middlebury College); Richard Longenecker, Pi Alpha '86 (University of Toledo); John R. Maiolo, Psi '60 (Lycoming College); Robert A. Matasick, Zeta '52 (Penn State University); Michael L. Peters, Alpha Alpha '91 (Lock Haven University of Pennsylvania); Eugene L. Spencer, Iota '76 (Bucknell University); and Philip D. Stinson, Theta '56 (Purdue University).

Brian Kligman, Rho Chapter, Lafayette College

Many new members are inducted into our Fraternity each semester, but this gentleman stands out from many. As an economics major and Spanish minor he earned a 4.0 GPA his pledge semester while balancing learning the ideals of Kappa Delta Rho. He quickly positioned himself among the officers serving as praetor, the only sophomore to hold an office, while also establishing a rubric for documenting Brother involvement in the chapter. This year's recipient of the Outstanding Pledge Award is not only a leader within his chapter but within college organizations such as Residence Hall Council, Students' Movement Against Cancer, and he created a chapter team for Relay for Life. He continues to stay involved by working as a teacher's assistant for microeconomics and has also been the recipient of Eugene P. Chase's Phi Beta Kappa award. We are proud to recognize Bryan Kligman, of the Rho Chapter as the 2006 KDR Outstanding Pledge.

OUTSTANDING SENIOR –

Kyle Lattimer, Pi Alpha Chapter, University of Toledo

Often the best leaders are those who cannot only stop a ship from sinking but make it rise again. The recipient of the Outstanding Senior Award did this and much more during his four years at school. Within KDR he served in six different positions including consul. During his tenure as president he helped the chapter improve on many levels including improved alumni relations, growth of the chapter and reduction of almost $7,000 from the chapter debt. Outside of KDR he served as the vice president of campus activities and programming, a director of Homecoming, as well a member of the U.S. Coast Guard. Kyle Lattimer, of the Pi Alpha Chapter, is recognized as the 2006 KDR Outstanding Senior.

OUTSTANDING ADVISOR – Craig Gordon, Pi Alpha Chapter, University of Toledo

The recipient of the Advisor of the Year award brings passion and determination to this position. At the beginning of the school year, this chapter needed a strong guide to help them correct mistakes of the past and to realize their potential.

This individual has gone beyond the call of duty to make this idea a reality. Not only does he attend weekly chapter meetings and is available for members to talk to at any time, he also helps to organize officer transitions, fundraising opportunities, and takes time to recognize the members that are doing their job well. A quote from a chapter member says it best, "Without the constant support and help from Craig, I'm absolutely sure that our chapter wouldn't be where it is now, if in existence at all. His ongoing positive attitude and direct leadership have given hope to a fraternity who really needed it." Craig Gordon of the Pi Alpha Chapter earned the honor of 2006's Outstanding Chapter Advisor.

O.D. ROBERTS AWARD FOR CHAPTER IMPROVEMENT

Theta Chapter, Purdue University

The first recipient of the O.D. Roberts Award for Chapter Improvement made great strides during the past year to return their chapter to the glory of yesteryear. Entering the year the, chapter had issues with recruitment, relations with alumni and the National Office, on-campus presence, and issues with their house. Determined to change the fate of the chapter, they worked hard at the beginning of the year to develop a plan for recruitment. Their work resulted in filling their house for the first time in recent memory. The members also took it upon themselves to begin renovating their house. They also reached out to the National Office and their alumni. While there is still a lot of work to do to make this chapter the powerhouse it once was, they have taken some giant steps forward. For their hard work the Theta Chapter at Purdue University was rewarded with an O.D. Roberts Award for chapter improvement.

Pi Alpha Chapter, University of Toledo

A year ago, this recipient was about to begin the year with much uncertainty. They had been on probation, amassed a large National debt, and their numbers had been shrinking along with an apathetic membership. At the beginning of the school year the chapter drew a line in the sand and decided they were going to make this year a success. They reached out to the university, the National Office and their alumni to learn how they could improve. With hard work by all the members this vision was able to become a reality.

Some of the highlights of the past year include the recruitment of 28 new members, which was the most on their campus, reduction of the chapter debt by almost $7,000, a new alumni corporation, hosting a National Conclave, successful on-campus programs, and a renewed spirit within the Brotherhood. For rising from the ashes an O.D. Roberts Award for Chapter Improvement was awarded to the Pi Alpha Chapter at the University of Toledo.

GRAND CONSUL AWARD – Zeta Beta Chapter, Tarleton State University

The 2006 chapter of the year lives life by Kappa Delta Rho instilling its values and bringing Honor Super Omnia not only within their chapter but also to their entire campus. They are a model chapter who excels in all aspects of chapter operations including recruitment, social service, scholarship, risk management, and campus involvement. They dominate recruitment on their campus, contribute 372 hours and endless funds to their community with service, achieved the top scholarship among their campuses fraternities, while redefining the term "Campus Involvement" by having leaders in numerous campus organizations. These gentlemen promote and assume leadership. Their university has also named them "Outstanding Campus Organization" in 2000, 2003, and 2004. The Zeta Beta Chapter at Tarleton State University is this year's Grand Consul Award winner for chapter of the year.

ALPHA SOCIETY (Middlebury College)

Consul Flannery Murphy '07 and Praetor Sean Ryan '07 represented the Alpha Society at the 95th KDR National Convention in Indianapolis, IN. At the convention, the Alpha Society received the Leo T. Wolford Award for Outstanding Campus Involvement, as well as the Executive Director's Award for Recruitment. To top it off, Alpha Society's Jonathan Hanlon '93 received the Ordo Honoris for his continued dedication to the KDR Brotherhood. Thanks to the dedication of Brother Ken Nakamura '07, the Alpha Society website has been revamped and updated as a source for undergraduates and alumni. For more information about upcoming events: www.middlebury.edu/~kdr.

BETA CHAPTER (Cornell University)

Beta Chapter's house is bustling with activity, as 21 brothers currently live in, the most in several years. Beta has three pledges this semester, on par with previous falls (as Cornell defers recruitment to the spring) and the three young gentlemen are quickly becoming integrated into the Brotherhood. Early in the semester, the Brothers took a trip to the Thousand Islands in Canada, camping out on an island on the St. Lawrence River, reflecting on the values and standards of Kappa Delta Rho, and discussing goals for the chapter. They returned to Cornell ready to turn those goals into reality.

EPSILON CHAPTER (Franklin College)

Epsilon is enjoying success after success this school year. Upon our return to Franklin College, we held a raffle that raised $150 for the Boys and Girls Club. During an extremely successful Formal Rush, Epsilon recruited 13 extraordinary gentlemen. We are very excited to make these young men our Brothers as they learn about our Fraternity and what it means to place Honor Above All Things. They all seem very eager to help make Kappa Delta Rho even greater in the future.

Homecoming was exceptionally eventful for us this fall. Brother Frank Pottorff was crowned Homecoming King, with three Epsilon Brothers out of the six men on the court. We raised $320 for the Boys and Girls Club through our second annual Pancake Breakfast and we expanded our efforts to reach alumni with the help of our Alumni Corporation. Our very own alumnus Brother Don Treibic '65 was inducted into the Franklin College Athletic Hall of Fame. Brother Treibic was the announcer for Franklin Grizzly football for 22 years and he also cofounded the Franklin College Touchdown Club.

We are currently gearing up for our traditional Halloween party and our second annual Kappa Delta Rho Dance-a-Thon, which will benefit the Boys and Girls Club of Franklin. All of us are striving to serve our community, excel academically, be active in campus organizations, represent our Fraternity properly, and most of all, live our lives with honor.

ETA CHAPTER (University of Illinois)

We have 15 new members from fall recruitment and are currently in the middle of a $700,000 Capital Campaign to raise money for our house renovation in 2009. We will be cohosting our annual 3 on 3 Soccer Tournament for Success By Six with Alpha Delta Pi.

IOTA CHAPTER (Bucknell University)

The Iota Chapter is excited to be back on campus after the summer break. Over the summer, chapter members and alumni attended the 95th KDR National Convention and Williams Leadership Academy. The Iota Chapter was well represented with six attendees – one of the largest delegations at the convention and the largest Iota delegation in recent history. Alumni members in attendance were Matt Leiphart '92, Bob Lynd '67, Bill Schaeffer '70, and Gene Spencer '76. Undergraduate members in attendance were Scott Budden '07 and Wes Madara '07. The chapter received the Executive Director's Award for Outstanding Recruitment for the fall 2005. Gene Spencer was inducted into Ordo Honoris, the highest honor bestowed upon a KDR Brother, for his professional accomplishments and his dedicated service as advisor to the Iota Chapter. Wes Madara was elected to serve on the National Board of Directors for a two-year term. Iota attendees represented their chapter with the professionalism of the Bucknell scholar and the presence of the KDR Gentleman.

At Bucknell University, the chapter is a leader in the Greek system. The chapter is proud to announce the addition of 22 new pledges to our chapter. The chapter looks forward to educating the pledges on the history and traditions of the Fraternity, as well as the day-to-day operations of the Fraternity to make them productive and positive members. Ryan Rakauskas and the rest of the Rush Committee did an excellent job during formal recruitment, spending long hours during the week-and-a-half formal recruitment filling out forms and contacting potential new members.

The chapter hosted its annual Chili Cook Off with the sisters of Pi Beta Phi, raising $1,000 for the local charity – Milton Relay for Life. The chapter also used this event to continue to reach out to the faculty and staff. Faculty members and staff who attended the event and were pleased with the appearance of the house and attitudes of the Brotherhood, even donating money towards our philanthropic endeavors. In the spring, the chapter hosted an Easter Egg Hunt with the sisters of Alpha Chi Omega for the children of the faculty and staff, which was also well attended and well received.

The chapter continues to support the educational process, promote campus events, and attend events and lectures on drug and alcohol use, hazing, community relations, diversity, health and wellness, and sexual assault. The chapter has many members in D-1 sports teams and attends the games to show support to our fellow Brothers. The chapter also looks forward to what should be another successful season by the basketball team, showing up in full force to support them.

The chapter continues to work to improve relations with its alumni through numerous meeting and conference calls. The Brotherhood Development Committee, consisting of active Brothers as well as alumni, has produced a vision for the chapter and a new member accountability program, and completely revised the pledge education process. At Bucknell's Homecoming, the chapter hosted events for the alumni to visit that chapter house and meet the Brotherhood. Bucknell and the Iota Chapter will be hosting a Memorial Service for our distinguished alumnus Lee Idleman on November 11 and welcome all alumni to attend.

The chapter is working hard to end the semester strong. We are already starting to recognize the future officers in the chapter and are working to set up a strong officer transition program to ensure that the chapter continues its positive work in promoting Brotherhood, academic achievement, and a strong and positive image of the Greek community to the surrounding community.

LAMBDA CHAPTER (University of California, Berkeley)

The Lambda Chapter is proud to announce that it has entered a stage of growth. Although we miss recently graduated seniors, we are excited to welcome a record-breaking nine new members to the chapter after our fall rush. As always, we maintain an enduring commitment to diversity – both ethnically and socially. We continue to produce campus leaders as Brothers rise to top positions in their student groups and jobs. Brothers are leaders in student government, honor societies, workplace management, ROTC, and many other student organizations.

This year, we have already begun a candy drive to raise money for KDR Kids. We will use the proceeds to donate books to a local public school. We also look forward to Halloween, when we will build a haunted house at our chapter house for local school children. We enjoy strong relations with our alumni and appreciate their continued support with chapter affairs and gentrification projects. Consult our website for more information on the Lambda Chapter at www.calkdr.com

NU CHAPTER (Indiana University)

Every year, the Nu Chapter makes progress both internally and across IU's campus. Nu's recruitment continues to excel as we usher in a new pledge class for the fall semester. As we welcome new members to our Brotherhood, we are also proud to see alumni involvement increasing at an unprecedented rate. From cookouts, tailgating, Monday night football, and massive video games sessions to study tables, community service hours at the community kitchen, and involvement with other Greek houses, Nu chapter has covered a great deal of ground in the few months we have been back in school. Nu has also worked closely with alumni to investigate acquiring a house in the near future. Most importantly, it has been 80 years since Nu Chapter was founded at IU. Our Brothers take pride knowing that our chapter has the longest running consecutive charter of any Greek house on campus. In its history, Nu has provided the university with the most well-respected gentlemen and scholars and will continue to do so for the next 80 years.

RHO CHAPTER (Lafayette College)

We are pleased to inform our alumni that once again, the Rho Chapter has continued to uphold the values and high standards of Kappa Delta Rho. At both the local and national level, the Rho Chapter has risen to and surpassed all expectations. At the National Convention this year, more Rho Chapter Brothers (14 in all) were rewarded scholarships than any other chapter across the country. In the spirit of KDR, we are dedicated to our academics and have the highest combined GPA of any fraternity on our campus. Furthermore, our GPA is higher than the combined GPA of all non-Greek students at Lafayette — no small feat at a school of such a high caliber.

When we last updated alumni, we were in the midst of planning our annual philanthropy event known as Dance Marathon. This event is cohosted with Pi Beta Phi and has always been a resounding success. To describe this past fundraising event as a mere success would be an understatement. We raised more money than any other philanthropy event on campus, and even doubled the amount we raised during this event in the past. All proceeds went to the Children's Home of Easton. We are pleased to announce that we won the McGaughey Trophy for most points in intramural competition. This is the second year in a row in which we won the award, and further demonstrates how active this chapter is on the campus. We have Brothers on sports teams, in Student Government, applying to law school, along with a whole host of other activities, and yet we still manage to find the time to participate in campus events as a Brotherhood.

This semester we have already held a car wash with Kappa Kappa Gamma, and raised more than $150. This money will be promptly donated to a worthy cause in Easton. Perhaps our most notable achievement in recent memory was the induction of 23 new Brothers. This was the largest pledge class in the entire nation and reflects on the character of each individual Rho Chapter Brother. Our new Brothers will continue to bring honor to Kappa Delta Rho, not only over the course of the next few years here at Lafayette, but over the course of their lifetimes.

PSI CHAPTER (Lycoming College)

Psi Chapter is off to a great start this year. We have two new members for the fall and have many prospects for the spring who have voiced their eagerness to join. We have received around $650 dollars worth of donations from our alumni and are selling discount cards, from which we have made roughly $1,000. We will also be selling polos to our alumni for a small profit. This will hopefully start a trend where instead of just asking for money, there is a mutually beneficial trade with the alumni, which in turn will build better connections. We have had several recruitment events this year including a BBQ, Watermelon Rugby, and Fight Night. In the near future, we hope to have a few poker tournaments and some Monday night football viewings. For community service this semester, we will be participating in a program called Operation Christmas Child, a day with Special Olympians called Hand in Hand, projects at a local church, a Teddy Bear Drive, and possibly the Lycoming SPCA. If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions, do not hesitate to contact President Dylan Chamberlin at his e-mail address chadyla@lycoming.edu.

ALPHA ALPHA CHAPTER (Lock Haven University)

The Alpha Alpha Chapter is extremely proud of the progress we have had this semester. Only four weeks into the semester we completed our community service, but we have plans to contribute more to our community as the semester progresses. Community service projects ranged from helping the local fire department, guiding the annual Mega Transact Race, and our 12-year participating highway cleanup. Our fundraising has been outstanding this year, and every Brother has certainly put forth great effort into this Fraternity.

Early in the semester our alumni hosted a constitutional retreat. It was extremely successful as every Brother learned more about the effectiveness and the importance of our Constitution. A great sense of KDR pride was felt in everyone as we sat around a campfire and different generations shared stories of their experiences of being an active Brother at the Alpha Alpha Chapter. The event showed every active member how much knowledge our alumni have to share and how important they are for the Brotherhood.

Homecoming was a great success this year thanks to all of the Brothers, each of whom put a lot of time and effort into making everything perfect. Our alumni informed us of the great time they had and how good the food was! As the active Brothers of the Alpha Alpha Chapter, we thought the alumni deserved to have this year be the best Homecoming ever attended. The alumni have helped us in great lengths this semester, including having new doors and windows installed in the house, as well as spending time working on the house to keep it in top condition.

Our alumni relations have never been better, we have a great pledge class coming into the Brotherhood, and the moral is higher than ever. We take great pride in everything we do. We have been working extremely hard this semester and plan to continue to make great strides to keep this Fraternity filled with Brothers who instill the ideals and pride of KDR in their hearts.

PI ALPHA CHAPTER (University of Toledo)

The Pi Alpha Chapter has had a busy start to the fall semester and we are glad to say that things are going well. Pi Alpha has just finished up with rush, and we are very excited about the rest of the semester and school year. We gave out 13 bids and signed 11 new members to become part of Kappa Delta Rho. Also, we just finished up with our Second Annual Alumni Tailgate/Cookout before our homecoming football game, which was an overall huge success. The KDR Brothers have been doing extremely well in sports as they won volleyball and kickball championships at the University of Toledo. Pi Alpha has also just made the playoffs for softball with a second seed in the bracket and look forward to finishing up the rest of their season. The Brothers have also been participating in numerous philanthropy events. The chapter largely participated and volunteered to help with Race for the Cure, and it is currently organizing a wheelchair basketball game for philanthropy. Pi Alpha has been off to a very busy start and we are looking forward to a great year.

UPSILON ALPHA CHAPTER (Saint Louis University)

On September 29-30, the Upsilon Alpha Alumni Corporation held its 8th Annual Alumni Weekend. Nearly 30 alumni and actives kicked the weekend off Friday night by watching the St. Louis Cardinals play the Milwaukee Brewers (thanks to Joe Duggan for managing to get us seats). The postgame win was celebrated at Paddy O's. The following morning the alumni held their semiannual meeting at Squires in Lafayette Square. Topics of discussion were website, active recruitment, and finances. In the afternoon the alumni retired to Cloverleaf Golf Course to play in the annual tournament. Dave Koellner and Ralph Depalma finished even for the day and won the tournament. Our next event will be the holiday dinner on December 1 at 7:00 p.m. at Mike Shannon's in downtown St. Louis. RSVP to mengelbart@hotmail.com

After 20 straight years, the Alpha Beta Chapter is proud to announce has a newly obtained lettered fraternity house. This new home is a great asset to this Fraternity. It is one of only five lettered houses on campus. Together with the acquisition of this house, the chapter will be celebrating its 20-year anniversary in December. KDR continues to achieve excellence as a prominent and incessantly strong chapter. With fall recruitment up 300 percent from last year, we are welcoming nine new members as pledges. The chapter has been continuing its tradition of adopt a street and will be participating in the city-wide Greek Cleanup. With fundraisers in full swing, the chapter has adopted a local school district in the Wilmington area that recently went bankrupt. Donations will be made to support field trips and other outings for the childrens' enjoyment. The chapter also proudly announces that one of its members will be playing for the Fightin' Blue Hens varsity football team!

EPSILON BETA CHAPTER (Old Dominion University)

The past six months have been times of great change and improvement at the Epsilon Beta Chapter. In April, the chapter held a Red Rose Formal at the Hilton Hotel. An alumnus of the chapter was even the host and DJ for the event. It was the first formal the chapter has held in more than five years and all the Brothers enjoyed the event. The Brothers have also made great strides in solidifying relationships with other chapters. Epsilon Beta has made great fraternal bonds with the College of William and Mary, as well as Christopher Newport University (CNU). Brothers will be attending the chartering ceremony at CNU. Rush was a fun and exciting time for the chapter as the Alpha Iota pledge class consists of seven members for fall 2006. All new members are motivated and eager to learn more about Kappa Delta Rho and become initiated. Epsilon Beta continues to participate in various philanthropy events, with the working of the Convocation Center being the most productive. The Convocation Center is the university's basketball arena and it hosts many events, including concerts and lectures. The chapter works concessions at various events and receives a percentage of profits from the facility. The profit is then used for the Fraternity and Relay for Life. Epsilon Beta also logs many hours of community service each semester with each Brother logging a minimum of 15 hours each semester. The next six months will prove to be just as exciting a time as the last six have been for Kappa Delta Rho at Old Dominion University.

The Iota Beta Chapter has been spending some of its weekends engaged in community service events, Adopt-A-Highway, and Open Hearts of Rochester. We are participating in RIT's Up 'Til Dawn yearlong philanthropy event to help St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital. We had our alumni weekend on October 6-8, where all the active and alumni had a very good time hanging out and catching up with one another. The active Brothers "allowed" the alumni to beat them in the softball game, and cheered and cried as the Yankees lost in the division series. This year's Red Rose Formal is May 5, 2007, at the Lake Shore County Club. Iota Beta's 20-Year Anniversary Red Rose Formal is tentatively schedule for May 1, 2010. ### SIGMA BETA CHAPTER (Univ. of N. Carolina, Greensboro)

The Sigma Beta Chapter has been very busy this semester. We started out the first month of school in August hosting a raffle for faculty, students, and the community. The winner of the raffle won a cruise for two to any destination of his or her choice. The proceeds from the event went to a family whose father is suffering from CJD. In September, we helped out the university police selling candy bars in order to raise money for Special Olympics. We also hosted our annual alumni homecoming where many alumni, Brothers, friends, and family were invited to an all-day cookout in the middle of downtown Greensboro. Also in September, the chapter picked up four excited and determined new members. This was a huge improvement after picking up one new Brother over the past two fall semesters. At the end of October we are having our Rho-A-Thon philanthropy. We are teaming up with the UNCG's wellness center during UNCG's Alcohol Awareness Week to raise money for the Boys and Girls Club of Greensboro. Many Brothers are competing in flag football and soccer intramurals where we have strong standings in each. We have set many goals for our chapter this semester and are continuing to meet them.

PHI BETA CHAPTER (The College of William and Mary)

The Phi Beta Chapter has seen great success over the course of the last several months. As a chapter, Phi Beta walked away from the National Convention with first-place awards in Outstanding Alumni Relations and Outstanding Risk Management, as well as the award for Best Chapter Website. Phi Beta was also recognized by William and Mary's Council for Fraternity Affairs for possessing the most improved chapter GPA of any fraternity. In addition, Phi Beta won W&M's Order of Omega Greek Awards for Excellence in Alumni Relations and Risk Management, as well as the Chapter Achievement Award for Progress. Senior Brother Kenny DeFontes was also recognized as W&M's Outstanding Greek Scholar for 2006.

Under the guidance of Senior Tribune Matthew Dickerson, the 2006 fall rush period ended with 11 exceptional men pledging their dedication to Phi Beta and the principles of Kappa Delta Rho. This pledge class marks one of the largest in our chapter's history at W&M.

With the pledge process now under way, the Phi Beta Chapter has turned its efforts toward planning a successful homecoming and aiding in the initiation of the CNU Provisional Chapter in late October.

Phi Beta's upcoming philanthropic endeavor, an earthball soccer tournament to take place in early November, will benefit the American Diabetes Association with which many Brothers have very personal connections. Besides raising awareness and promoting a worthy cause, the Phi Beta Brothers hope to use this event as a way to advance the W&M community for both Greeks and non-Greeks alike.

It is still very early in the 2006-2007 school year, and although there is much to accomplish over the next few months, Phi Beta intends to continue to prove why it is the best thing going at The College of William and Mary.

stands. The fundraiser has been tremendous fun, has strengthened bonds between Brothers, and has also helped support our newly founded Alumni Corporation, as well as the active chapter. Since our inception as a chapter at the University of Detroit Mercy, we have continually held the highest GPA on campus. Alpha Gamma has been able to overcome newly imposed university recruitment regulations and will be handing out 16 bids this fall, potentially doubling the active Brotherhood! The chapter continues to have strong involvement with the Detroit community, actively lending service to major community events such as Angel's Night and the Detroit Project, while not forgetting university service projects such as Safety Street.

GAMMA GAMMA CHAPTER (York College)

The Gamma Gamma Chapter has been busy this semester. The charter ceremony is set for December 2. In pledging, the chapter has received a pledge class of six, the most out of all the other fraternities on campus. In philanthropy, the Brothers are planning their second toy drive for York Helping Hands. Last year, the Brothers collected approximately 240 toys and more than $400 in cash donations. The Brothers plan to receive even more this year. Our president is also the president of IFC this year while our social chair is the education/scholarship chair for IFC. The chapter is getting involved more and more with the campus with such groups as the YCP Players, ACJA, Orientation Leaders, and various music department organizations. The chapter holds an open invitation to any Kappa Delta Rho chapter or alumnus who would like to come down for a visit.

William M. Steinfeldt, Theta '38

Kappa Delta Rho has lost one of its most venerable Brothers with the passing of Rochester, NY alumnus William M. Steinfeldt, Theta '38, who died on September 4, 2006, at the age of 89. In the mid-1990's, Brother Steinfeldt generously donated funds to establish the Theta Chapter Veterans Memorial Scholarship awarded annually at the KDR Foundation Luncheon during the National Convention.

Brother Steinfeldt was a chemical engineer with Eastman Kodak for many years before entering county and state politics. He served with distinction in the Monroe County Legislature in the late 1970's to mid-1980's, in the New York State Assembly from 1969-1974, and later in the New York State Senate. He was a formidable figure in numerous Rochester-area community organizations.

According to his son, Philip, also a Theta Chapter alumnus, his father had an intense sense of community — he knew how everything worked. Philip points out that his father's membership in Kappa Delta Rho during his college years "really developed his strong sense of community that greatly influence his life."

From the Foundation President

KDR's Key to the Future — The Heritage Society

Several years ago your Foundation began a program whereby alumni and friends of KDR could provide future financial support to the Fraternity through an estate gift to the Foundation. We recognize our Brothers and friends who include the Foundation in their estate plans by making them members of the Heritage Society.

This unique program of giving enables one to provide for future gifts when gifting throughout life might provide some financial hardship. Such gifts may be earmarked for endowments, scholarships, or to provide a measure of operating income to the Foundation.

Many of us are in those years where we seriously consider our estate planning for the benefit of our heirs and organizations that have become an important part of our lives. And, one of those cherished organizations for many of us is Kappa Delta Rho. Perhaps, during our active years, we were somewhat remiss in not repaying Kappa Delta Rho for the head start it provided in life and our careers, but this can easily be rectified through an estate gift to the Foundation.

You can include the Foundation in your estate plans through a bequest in your will, a provision in your trust agreement, by naming it a beneficiary on your retirement plan, and through life insurance.

Life insurance provides a simple way of gifting by making the KDR Foundation the beneficiary under one of your policies. As we age, the need for life insurance diminishes, inasmuch we have raised our families and the critical need for such funds reduces. As college seniors, many of us purchased a life insurance policy to start us on our way and, in most instances that policy is still in force. Thus, as the need for the insurance proceeds for the benefit of family reduces over the years, it becomes an excellent and inexpensive way to include the Foundation in your estate plans. You can make a gift of the policy and receive a tax deduction for the cash value of the policy. Or, you can simply make the foundation a beneficiary of all or part of the proceeds by completing a change of beneficiary form.

To date, there are 42 members of the Heritage Society and it is my hope that we can increase this number to 60 by the end of this year.

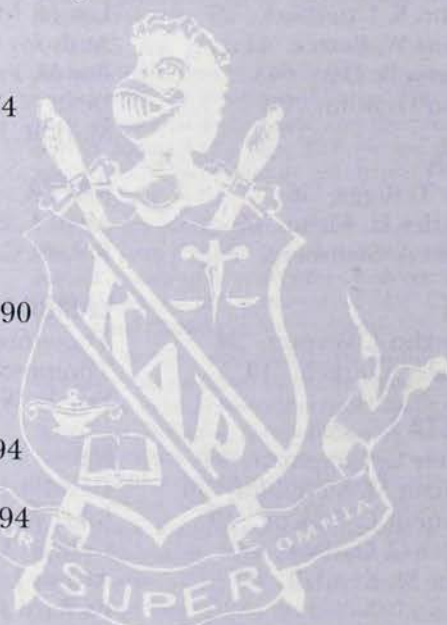

As you review and formulate your estate plans, consider one or more of the various options outlined above in order to provide for the future of our great Fraternity. Bill Paris, our chief development officer, is available at any time to discuss the many options with you. You can contact Bill at The Kappa Delta Rho Foundation, P.O. Box 699, Greensburg, PA 15601; e-mail foundation@kdr.com; or call (800) 536-5371 ext. 15. Thank you for your worthy consideration.

Fraternally,
Thomas V. McComb, Nu '59
President

Foundation Receives $150,000 Estate Gift

On June 27, 2006, Kappa Delta Rho lost one of our most visionary and dedicated alumnus leaders. Lee Idleman, Iota '54, passed away after a brief illness. In his passing he continued his legacy of leadership by including the Kappa Delta Rho Foundation in his estate plans to create an endowed scholarship for his chapter, and making a generous provision for the Foundation's endowment through the Centennial Campaign.

UIFI/Future's Quest Program Begun

The Foundation, at the request of the National Fraternity, has allocated resources to provide financial support for undergraduate members of KDR to participate in the Undergraduate Interfraternity Institute (UIFI) and Futures Quest programs put on by the North American Interfraternity Conference.

Brother Matt Dickerson, Phi Beta '07, College of William and Mary, was privileged to be the first to engage in an intense experience talking about how fraternity and sorority leaders live their Ritual and developing a vision of positive change.

"We need to realize how good we are, but we also need to realize how much better we can get," Brother Dickerson said. "How many of us have read our Ritual? How many of us know the five values that KDR was founded upon? How many of our values and actions are congruent with the Ritual and values of KDR? I know these questions were shocking to me when I first heard them because I had never thought of them. They made me think and reflect upon my actions and myself."

Alumni support of the Foundation translates into a dramatic impact on the lives of young KDR students each year. According to Bill Paris, Eta '87, director of development; "We've been very pleased with the results of the program to support our students participation in these programs. The National Fraternity has requested that we increase our program for next year and we plan to continue to partner with them to make this possible."

Foundation Supports Fraternity's "Recruitment Through Scholarship" Program

At its July 2006 meeting, the trustees of the Kappa Delta Rho Foundation, at the request of the National Fraternity, established a Recruitment Scholarship Program, allocating up to $10,000 to begin the program. Each new member who attains at least a 3.0 GPA during the pledge semester will receive a $100 academic scholarship.

"I'm very pleased we can begin this new program to help inspire our undergraduates to not only recruit more men, but to encourage them to focus on their studies as well," stresses Tom McComb, Nu '59, president of the Foundation.

According to J.R. Rees, Nu '01, executive director of the National Fraternity, "This is an excellent example of the Foundation partnering with the National Fraternity to inspire growth and achievement among our chapters."

Alumni giving matters and greatly impacts each individual chapter directly and indirectly through educational programs, scholarships, and other grant programs. Never underestimate the power of your gift.

The following Brothers or friends made gifts to the Foundation as part of the Centennial Recognition Program during the 2005-2006 (July 1, 2005 - June 30, 2006) fiscal year. This report reflects only payments made and does not include all Brothers or friends who are supporting the Centennial Recognition Program.

Foundation Presents Vision 2000 Dedication Plaque

The Foundation recently acquired the dedication plaque recognizing the donors to the Vision 2000 Campaign (July 1997 to June 30, 2003). According to Tom McComb, Nu '59, Foundation president, "Now that the Vision 2000 Campaign pledges are fulfilled, we've acquired the permanent memorial plaque to recognize those Brothers who generously contributed $2,500 or more to the campaign."

Bill Paris, Eta '87, director of development for the Kappa Delta Rho Foundation holds the Vision 2000 Dedication Plaque.
