Truck Transportation in Today's Economy

O. D. "Nat" Doud, Eta, '22

O. D. "Nat" Doud, Eta, '22

Man's progress in recorded history shows that a direct relation exists with means of transportation. If we consider the past thirty centuries up to the date of the Motor Truck it is impossible to say whether improved transport equipment permitted man's progress or the progress of the race prescribed better equipment. Which came first—the hen or the egg—civilization or transport betterment?

Maladjustment in our Economy

Transportation is one of the important cost elements in distribution. The cost of every article we eat or wear is made up of various production and distribution costs.

Production progress and increased efficiency have far outstripped improvements in distribution methods. When you buy a new suit of clothes 41 cents of the dollar is spent for production, but 59 cents for distribution. This "out of gear" ratio can be further illustrated. We have machines today by which a single operator can turn out 40,000 bricks per day, and in another industry a man produces 2,600 cigarettes a minute, but we have yet to learn how to distribute them to the ultimate consumer.

High distribution costs are the price we pay for our modern industrial efficiency and we cannot hope to enjoy a full measure of stabilized economic life except through large reductions in distribution costs in relation to buying power.

Changing Modes of Transportation

Pipe lines contributed materially toward reducing the high distribution cost of oil, gasoline and natural gas. Pipe lines in the year 1939 carried 12% of the entire country's freight movement.

High distribution costs have been reduced somewhat by motor transportation in that it has permitted the maintenance of small inventories of raw materials, semi-finished and finished products in the hands of producers, wholesalers and retailers. There have been material reductions also in the trade units in which goods are bought and sold.

The use of motor vehicles in agriculture has radically changed that industry. Large quantities of fruits, vegetables, dairy products and live stock are moved directly from farm to markets in nearby cities. Large quantities of agricultural products are transported direct from farms to markets several hundred, or even a thousand or more miles away. Even "dated coffee" would not be possible today for every consumer, were it not for the daily arrival of newly prepared and sealed packages at the corner grocery store by motor trucks.

Another innovation proving truck transportation the more economical agency came with the announcement last month by the Postmaster General of the new highway postoffice. It is a specially designed truck, equipped with the facilities for sorting, handling and dispatching mail and has been placed in service in Virginia, serving seven counties having approximately 125,000 residences. The new truck service will not compete with existing railway transportation but will supersede discontinued train service. The vehicle weighed 18,500 lbs. and cost the Government $12,000.00.

Taxes or Subsidy

Such an article as this would certainly miss a big point if it did not include some reference to taxes paid by the Motor Truck Industry compared to the tax burden shared by the country's Railroads. Authoritative information is most desired on such a controversial subject and for that reason the information given is quoted from a report recently issued by Joseph B. Eastman, Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission in which he said in part as follows:

"The net result of this analysis of cost and payments is that there was no public aid or subsidy to motor vehicle users as a class in the period 1921 to 1932. For the period 1933 to 1937 inclusive the report shows that motor vehicle tax payment totalled $4,751,773,000.00. This amount was $387,966,000.00 in excess of the total 'assignable' cost for motor vehicles' portion of road maintenance. 80% of the annual cost of state highways was considered the burden of motor vehicle operators as a class."

He stated that motor carriers "as a class" were not subsidized but the report went on to state that a subsidy of $1,443,000,000 had been given to the railroads, mainly in the two decades following 1850. His report appears to be fair as may be easily recognized by his comments, "I may add that the railroads have had the opportunity to express to me both orally and in writing, their views on the highway carriers. Their contentions impress me as being carried to extreme limits."

Who Hauls the Nation's Freight

For the most recent twelve months period, in terms of ton miles, the railroads handled 61.8% of all freight, while the trucks handled 8.47%, approximately half of which was moved on "for hire trucks." The inland waterways accounted for 17.71%, while pipe lines handled 11.97%. In 1939 the trucks had operating revenues of $940,000,000.

Growth of Truck Transportation

There are 122,473 communities in the United States. Nearly 40% or 48,492, are served by trucks exclusively. Many are small, but the combined population of these 48,492 communities is nearly 8,000,000 or more than the combined population of twelve Western States. Trucks, with fast deliveries from wholesale centers, enable local dealers to carry small inventories. A two or three day suspension of truck service to these truck-served communities would result in a near-disaster confusion, so closely do they live up to their merchandise needs.

In the west, in particular, the motor freight truck has found its special destiny. Railroads carried civilization along long lines, and bunched it in spots which are now urban areas. Trucks are spreading it out. In the eleven Western states are millions of acres untouched by the plow, great mineral resources far from rails, sites for cities unborn. Here lies nearly 40% of the land area of the United States, with only 9.37% of the population—which means, despite the colossal mountains and great desert areas, there is still room for expansion. All of this great country is the freight Truck's very eminent domain.

Proof of Highway Transport Merits

During recent years there has been a continued increase in the investment of various railroad companies in subsidiary transportation units operating motor trucks. The Pennsylvania Railroad, Burlington Lines, Baltimore & Ohio, Missouri Pacific and many others have continued to in-

CHARLES BARBE BROADCASTS FROM BERLIN

Following is an article which appeared in the Indianapolis Star, Sunday, March 16. It tells of the experiences of Charles M. Barbe, Omicron, Ex '30, in Europe during the present conflict.

Your editor was unable to reach Bro. Barbe's parents, since they are in Florida, so it is necessary that the article be copied verbatim. I hope to have more interesting facts from Charlie for the next issue.

While in school, Bro. Barbe composed the music for the old Kappa Delta Rho Sweetheart Song which many of you know. Bro. Urban V. Pflum, Omicron, '31, composed the lyrics.

ED.

When news is being broadcast from Berlin, the announcer speaking from the German capital is not just a disembodied voice to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Barbe, 330 North Colorado avenue. It is the voice of their son, Charles M. Barbe, who has been in Europe since April of last year.

Charles Barbe, 32 years old, went to France with the American volunteer ambulance corps. He was taken prisoner in northern France soon after France's fall. At that time he was serving in the unit commanded by Dr. James V. Sparks of Indianapolis. After a brief time in a prison camp in Germany he was released and went to Paris. He worked for a Paris newspaper, conducted an orchestra and then went to Berlin, where he became associated with Harry Flannery, broadcasting for CBS. He has been in Berlin for more than two months.

Great Surprise

Mr. and Mrs. Barbe hear their son's voice over the air every time they get the chance. The first time they heard it, it was a great surprise; they were driving in Florida, and had the radio in their car turned on, when suddenly they heard their son's voice speaking through a Washington station. Though they had not in the least expected such a thing, Mrs. Barbe recognized his voice immediately. A few weeks ago, hearing his voice come over the air, she said that it sounded as if he were suffering from a cold and his next letter said that that was the case—that he had caught cold through living in a poorly heated house in Berlin. He is now living in the Hotel Adlon.

Copy Censored

Everything he says over the air is first written and the manuscript carefully scrutinized by the Nazi authorities. Since he went to Europe he has observed the progress of the war and the situation in the conquered countries, in Holland, Luxembourg and Belgium as well as France and Germany. He expects to return to Paris some time this month.

He is an accomplished musician, specializing in the piano and pipe organ. He had his first instruction on the organ in Christ church. For a time he was head of the music department at Elon College in North Carolina and, upon returning to Indianapolis, was director of the Meridian Heights Presbyterian Church choir.

LOS ANGELES ALUMNI ELECT

At the last regular meeting of the Los Angeles Alumni Association of Kappa Delta Rho, Bro. Weldon Powell, Eta, '22, was elected President for the coming year. Bro. Roger Williams, Lambda, '32, was elected Secretary-Treasurer.

All brothers living in the vicinity of Los Angeles are urged to attend the meetings of the Association. This is one very fine way of renewing your old college friendships, and acquiring new acquaintances of fellow KDRs.

INDIANA STATE DANCE REVIVED

INDIANA STATE DANCE IN PROGRESS

The Indiana Kappa Delta Rhos revived the old custom of the State Dance on Feb. 8, 1941 in the Travertine Room of the Lincoln Hotel in Indianapolis, Ind. The Indianapolis Alumni Association with the cooperation of the three undergraduate chapters of the state, Epsilon of Franklin, Theta of Purdue, and Nu of Indiana sponsored the dance.

It was a grand affair with the chapters well represented and over fifty alumni attending. Jack Berry and his orchestra provided sweet and swing music from 9:30 until 12:30. The chaperones were Dean and Mrs. Gino A. Ratti, Alpha, '07; Prof. and Mrs. James A. Peeling, Pi, '25; and Prof. John L. Geiger, Honorary of Nu chapter.

The dance was such a success that plans are now under way to continue the tradition in the future.

OPEN HOUSE AT THE RATTI'S

Dean and Mrs. Gino A. Ratti, Alpha, '07, held open house on Sunday, January 12, at their home, 329 Buckingham Drive, Indianapolis, Ind., for the Indianapolis Alumni Association of Kappa Delta Rho and their wives. Mrs. J. A. Peeling and Mrs. Rockwood presided at the tea table, which was beautifully decorated with yellow roses and candles.

Kappa Delta Rhos who attended were Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jones, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Andrey, Mr. and Mrs. U. V. Pflum, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Priest, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Vogel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mathers, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Urbain, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vehling, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott French, Prof. and Mrs. James A. Peeling, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mayer Maloney, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Olcott, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wertz and children. Others attending were Mr. Herbert White and guest Miss Estrid Benson, Mr. Frank M. Fitch, Jr., and guest Miss Ruth Duckwall, Mr. Harold Buckhorn, Mr. Warren Boultinghouse, Mr. Gino Ratti, Jr., and Mr. Emilio Ratti.

Editorial Comment

In recent years I have heard various undergraduates of fraternity chapters over the country question the survival of the fraternity system. These remarks do not come from any one fraternity or even any one section of the country, but are universal among all students.

They point out the fact that this institution and that institution has built, or is going to build, dormitories for the students. These dormitories will house from two hundred to twenty-five hundred students, according to the demand at the particular institution, and will rent for about the same amount of money which a fraternity must charge to operate. The fraternity man says, "How can we continue in the face of such competition? The 'dorms' are new, our house is old! Their furniture is new, metal equipment,—ours is old, marred, and scratched." All of this leads me to believe that fraternity men are getting away from the original idea of a fraternity.

Brothers of Kappa Delta Rho and any other fellow Greeks who may happen to read this article, all fraternities, whether they be young or old, were established upon a principle or an idea, which the founders felt should be stressed in order to make better men out of the "better boys." Delve back into your fraternity's history and you can easily learn why your fraternity was established.

The primary purpose for the founding of Kappa Delta Rho at Middlebury College in 1905, was the promotion of good fellowship and the advancement of truth, justice, and virtue among its members. Now I think we will all agree that this is a very general and broad statement; however, our "Founding Fathers" did not stop with this brief paragraph. They further stated that the fraternity, Kappa Delta Rho, shall foster high ideals of scholastic achievement, intellectual attainment, and ethical development; and shall encourage the provision of cultural surroundings wherein the members may enjoy a social life that will supplement their other college activities and prepare them for future responsibilities.

If each and every one, undergraduates and alumnus alike, would sit down and closely analyze the above aims of our fraternity, we would have little or no difficulty convincing any prospective pledge that he should become a member of our fraternity rather than any other one, or rather than becoming one of the many in the dormitory. How many young men are in dormitories over the country who really believe in the principles set out above, but who have not had them thoroughly explained to them? Many, I would be willing to wager! We have no competitor in the dormitories or in any other fraternity. All we have to do is select the boy or boys we want, and give them a thorough and concise explanation of our standards and principles in a manner which will be interesting and appealing, and the law of averages will give you your just share of men. Men rushed and pledged on this basis will be of higher quality and better fraternity material.

True, the administration has the "jump" on all fraternities when it comes to filling their dormitories, but not for long. You seldom see a man voluntarily return to the dormitory after he has filled one contract. He generally looks for a fraternity or a rooming house where he may move to immediately upon the termination of his dormitory contract.

Fraternity survival all sums up to the following. We must have something definite to offer the freshman, when he arrives on the campus. We must not only offer it to him, but we must offer it in a glamorous manner. We must be enthusiastic about it ourselves. We must instill this enthusiasm in him and a very strong desire to be a part of it.

Recently a letter came to my desk from a Brother who is fifteen years removed from college. He still has the love and admiration for his fraternity that he had the day he graduated. He sent me a copy of a letter which he had just written his chapter and I have permission to print it. I quote in part from this letter: "Fraternities have gradually become little more than eating clubs and private dormitories. This is not so much because of any lack of material fraternal accessories, but simply because the modern college student can get so far away in so short a time that the ties which formerly bound him on the campus no longer exists. The university is no longer a cloistered academic haven.

"The fraternity used to be a place where a student almost had to go for his evenings, his contacts in a social way, and his weekends. In losing this as an extra-curricular necessity the fraternity system as a whole has lost its grip on the potential backbone of its existence. Athletes who once thought a fraternity pin sufficient reward, no longer want a jewelled badge—they want scholarships, car, clothes, and cash. The studious group prefers the comparative quiet of a university-controlled dormitory to the contemporary chaos of the fraternity house. Group feeding—once a pleasant diversion—has too often become a profitable racket, which has helped give fraternity dining rooms a black eye. Initiations have lost much of their glamour as freshmen learn the tricks in High School and enter College with more than a shaved head and a Frosh Cap. Highly competitive pledging procedure has done a large share in discouraging real fraternal progress and will do more in precipitating eventual downfall than any other one thing.

"Briefly, the fraternity itself has grown to expect the individual to make up for all its own deficiencies and to supply all of the initiative and effort while the group as a group does nothing at all.

"There is, however, a solution which if possible to establish would be an ideal even though it might seem to be a return or at least a step backward. Become more than a rooming house and more than an eating club. Don't sell rushees on the fact that he can live as cheaply at your house as he can in a boarding house—or that you can make him manager of track in his Senior year because you have always 'had' the managership of track.

"Don't scurry for your rushees simply because it happens to be the time to rush. Choose him at any time and choose him because you really want him to be a member of your group; because you can offer him as much or more than he can offer you, not bridge games, not victrola dances, not liquor bouts, not necessarily athletics—but good, sound, real, honest fellowship, serious thinking and acting.

"Idealistic? Yes, of course it is; but it can be done. Not in one semester and probably not completely in a college generation. It can be done, it has been done, and it must be done if Greeks all over the country are to survive."

The letter, from which the above excerpts were taken was a very fine "editorial" in itself, and I regret that I could not print the entire letter. If each alumnus of all Greek Fraternities would have the same feeling, and would pass his enthusiasm on to the undergraduate chapters from time to time, the old fraternity spirit would probably return into every chapter house in the country. We would not hear about the effects of the dormitories upon rush, or the lack of cooperation among the members, or even of any great financial difficulties.

However, it should not be necessary for the alumni to instill this spirit into the undergraduates. It should be there because of self pride, wanting to see their organization prosper, wanting to perpetuate the ideals and principles which were set down years ago by their founders, and to which they themselves swore allegiance when they were initiated.

Perhaps it is because of the unsettled condition of the world today, which has brought such a marked change over the undergraduates. This is a reason which has been mentioned by several of the educators over the country with whom I have talked. They say that because of the general unrest, and the uncertainty which exists, that youth's mind wanders, and he can not control his thoughts or actions. It is unfortunate that the conditions of the world are such that he can not concentrate on his daily work. These are trying times, it is true, but if we wish to survive, either as individuals, as fraternities, or even as a nation, we must concentrate to the best of our ability upon our own particular jobs, and do them the best we know how. We must forget the world outside, and in that way and in that way alone, can we conquer all obstacles.

TRUCK TRANSPORTATION

crease their financial control in this direction. Only last month the Missouri Pacific Freight Transport Company of Houston, Texas, a railroad subsidiary, was authorized to purchase certain operating rights of Reynolds Motor Freight Line, also of Houston by authority of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

As these acquisitions continue, the cost of "feeder line" transportation to the railroads will become less and in the end the public should benefit by this trend toward the transportation distribution costs.

Future Progress

Just as the railroad a century ago began the process of knitting the United States closer together economically, socially and politically by weaving a web of steel rails across the continent and from the Canadian to the Mexican border, the motor vehicle is weaving a closer and differently designed fabric of economic, social and political life, the patterns of which it is difficult, if not impossible to trace at this time. The changes are so sweeping and continue to be made with such rapid progress that it is still impossible to see more than the bold outline. However, it is impossible to interpret present economic trends without taking into consideration fast highway transportation as an important distribution factor of major importance in our economic life.

NOTE: In addition to being Treasurer for the Silver Fleet Motor Express, Inc., "Nat" was appointed to serve as Chairman of the National Committee of Accounting Officers of the Motor Carrier Industry. In connection with this responsibility, he has been placed in charge of a "Traffic Survey and Operating Cost Analysis" for the Trucking Industry. He is required to spend about half of his time in Washington, D.C., working on this Survey. Nat reports that although these added responsibilities do not carry any mercenary compensation, nevertheless they often prove valuable both from the standpoint of contacts made and the learning acquired. He says that the work is having the same influence on him as if he were again registered in a post graduate course in college.

CHICAGO ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Chicago Alumni Association of Kappa Delta Rho meets the third Thursday of every month at the Shamrock Restaurant, 28 N. LaSalle St. Dinner, $1.00, will be served at 6:30. This will now be permanent, as we have for the past few months been meeting on Wednesday evenings. All brothers in the Chicago area are invited to attend these meetings.

Alpha

Middlebury College

INITIATION

To date Alpha has initiated nine of her pledges—Larry Gagnier, '43, Bill Meikle, '43, and freshmen Lew Clark, Ferd Ensinger, Lew Ensinger, Kurt Klein, Bob Klein, Buster Adams, Bill Neale. The rest of the pledges are waiting to join next year.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The annual Rho-De-O was held Saturday, March 8, and as usual, turned out to be one of the best dances of the year. The house was temporarily turned into a "ranch," that atmosphere being effected by covering the walls with wrapping paper and substituting hay for chairs. The chaperones for the evening—among them being Charles Hickox, '34—were effectively penned up in a "corral."

The four vic dances held since the last issue of the Quill and Scroll have been well attended. We are slated for another informal on Friday, March 21, the night before spring vacation.

On February 23 Alpha held one of its most successful initiation banquets. More than the usual number of alumni were here for the occasion. Our Mom's grand meal and the short speeches rendered by the alumni and certain of the undergraduates made the evening a great success.

May 10 is the date of the annual formal dance. The dance will be held at the Middlebury Inn.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Alpha has had a very successful winter season in intramurals this year. Our basketball squad, made up of two teams—one of freshmen, the other of seniors—galloped through to win the cup without suffering a single loss. We placed third in hockey competition. After the hockey season was officially closed Alpha was challenged by the winners of the cup. We accepted the challenge and won 3-0. Incidentally the losers treated the winners to a beer party.

The board track team surprised themselves, and the rest of the brothers, by winning the first three heats in competition. We lost the finals to place second.

Further competition starts after spring vacation when softball, tennis and spring track should enable us to keep a firm grip on first place in total team standings.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Bro. Wright, '41, has been elected co-chairman of Senior Week. (We hope Dingy picks the right man for the orchestra committee.)

And again Alpha dominates the personnel of the Black Panthers. This year we have four men in the band. Bud Moore is back again with his trumpet to help out Ken (the Rabbit) Aldrich and Bud Nims in the brass section, and Larry Warner is at the piano.

SPORTS

Major sports are in a lull at the present moment, with basketball and hockey finished and baseball not yet under way. Baseball practice has started, however, and Alpha is well represented. Dingy Wright is again working as a catcher; this year he is fighting it out with freshman Johnny Ingalls. Ed Yeomans will be holding down first plate. Sammy Bertuzzi will either pitch or play in the outfield with Syke Arnold. Charley Bobertz is also a candidate for the pitching staff.

Eddie Gignac—our skier "par excellence"—left school after the first semester and his loss was keenly felt by the ski team, as it is by all the fellows in the house.

ALUMNI

Among those returning for the Winter Carnival were Willy Watts, '39, Dave Goodell, '40, Milt Jahoda, ex '43, and George Lewin, '40. George is staying at the house now; he expects to return to Boston where he has a position as claims adjustor with Liberty Mutual Life Insurance.

RUSHING

KDR started the new rushing season by pledging Clayton William Parker, '43, Ag., of Macedon, N.Y. and Dwight Baxter of Mountindale, N.Y.

VARSIITY SPORTS

Matty "Slugger" Urbanowitz, '41, the Bomber of the Cornell Varsity Boxing team virtually punched his way into the finals of the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association. Although Matty only weighs about 160 lbs. he won all his bouts, fighting the majority of them in the 175-lb. class. In the Intercollegiates Matty ran into a bit of misfortune. Fighting men that outweighed him 15 to 20 lbs. he cleaned up his first and second bracket opponents, reaching the finals which were to be fought only 4 hours after his last fight, Matty faced the Intercollegiate champion in a rather tired condition. His opponent drew a bye for the first bracket and only had to fight one round of the second bracket scoring a TKO over his man. Thus Matty faced the crucial test against a fresh man. Nevertheless Matty went in the ring and gave that man all he had for three full rounds. He lost the decision but in doing so he showed the crowd a brilliant exhibition of skill and courage wading into his opponent with everything he had. The fight was sensational, it was easily the greatest fight any Intercollegiate had ever seen. Matty hit with and was hit with everything but the ring itself. The decision was so close that if Joe Jacobs had been there he would have yelled "We Wus Robbed." This fight was a glorious ending to an outstanding career of an outstanding athlete. Matty's style of boxing, his courage and good sportsmanship have earned him the praise of all those who watched him box even among his staunchest rivals.

INTRAMURALS

KDR's relay team made up of Bob Holzman, '44, Doug Wright, '43, Bern Smith, '44, and Jack Mapes, '41, placed in the finals of the race held at the Triangular track meet for the third time in 4 years. We placed second this year as we did three years ago by one second. Two years ago we won the race by the same margin.

Bob Holzman and Bern Smith are entered in the Interfraternity Boxing Matches and with the able tutelage of Brother Urbanowitz should make a couple of wins for KDR.

Our basketball team has not fared so well this year. We lost all but one game. We beat Beta Theta Pi.

SOCIAL

Junior week we had a house party . . . and what a party it was. Contrary to tradition our chaperones would not close their eyes and ears to the world and sit quietly by. They were actually the life of the party in on every bull session, telling more stories than all the rest together. They were here for a good time, and they had it, (so did we). As a veteran of four years of house parties I can say that this one was actually the best I have ever attended.

At the Drill Hall we danced to music by Benny Goodman and Bob Chester. The weekend was a gala affair and will long be remembered. The Prom, the Musical Club's Show, the Ice Carnival and the 12 inches of snow seemed to be on a higher scale of excellence than ever before.

Feb. 26 the house was thrown open to a beer party; every man and his brother was there. This started a precedent that several other houses have taken up.

We had a vic' dance March first and it was such a success that we have several more planned for the future.

ALUMNI NEWS

The weekend of the Triangular Track Meet was the occasion for a minor reunion of the class of '40. Ed Beebe, Paul Lutz, Howie Spence, and Carlos Cary returned to witness Cornell trounce Syracuse and Colgate.

Other recent visitors have been Art Schwab, Bill Barlow, Charley Kotary, Ev Sargent, Curley Higley, Ralph Higley, Charles Comfort, '15, and Chuch Northrup.

Richard Hubbard, '40, and Ruth Defenbacher were married at Cleveland March 12. Ray Hubbard, '41, was Dick's best man. Congratulations to you both.

Herb Johnson, '15, visited the house last week and we enjoyed his visit. We would like to see more of the older men of Beta stop in to see us. We have the best cook on campus.

Gamma

N.Y. State College for Teachers

Due to a mistake in the mailing address, Gamma failed to make itself known in the last issue of the Quill and Scroll.

PLEDGES

As a result of rushing, Gamma now stands stronger on the campus by the addition of 13 pledges. Eleven of these were pledged in the fall, and two were added to the rostrum in the beginning of the second semester. Well satisfied with the results, Gamma has maintained its traditional policy of having small, closely knit classes in the fraternity. Brother Holstein was chairman of rushing, and is to be complimented on his activity. During the pledgship, and Hell Week (just finished) Brother Holstein was the Demon, as far as the pledges were concerned. The day the pledges wore bedsheets to school was a memorable one, undimmed by the fact that the administration deemed it wise for the boys to change, fearing perhaps an unexpected show of avoirdupois.

If the rest of the pledges equal the scholarship achievements of Blummel, the brethren will soon be flicking their ashes in the scholarship cup, instead of on the floor to the anguish of "Housemother" Brophy. Marsland and Blythe are still doing their "good turn" daily in the Boy Scout fraternity, and will have the honor of being mentioned later. Both hold offices in the organization.

INITIATION

Gamma chapter unfortunately has been hit by a financial drouth among its pledges at the present time. At the formal initiation on March 9, only four of the pledges could see their way financially clear to enter the brotherhood. These were: Marsland, Beyer, Walker, and Forrest. The others expect to have the necessary coin soon, and for this reason, Gamma will have another formal initiation shortly, according to Consul Clark.

Because the majority of the pledges will enter the fraternity at the next initiation, Gamma has decided to postpone the annual banquet till this time. The other pledges are all saving their pennies, and have worked out a system whereby they are putting away a little each week. They are to be commended for the way they are working and saving.

ACTIVITIES

Service Fraternity of State College recently elected its officers for the coming year. Service Fraternity is an organization open to all who have been Boy Scouts, and attempts to carry on the ideals and principles of scouting. Of the six officers elected, three were Gammas, and one was an independent. President-elect of the organization is Brother Tybring, '42. Brother Marsland, '43, is corresponding secretary, while Pledge Blythe, '43, is historian—which would indicate that there are some good scouts in Gamma.

Brother Kusak, '41, Managing Editor of the News, and member of Myskania, senior leadership society, has been named general chairman of the Inter-Fraternity Banquet, to be held in the near future.

Brother Holstein, '42, Junior Associate Editor of the News, journeyed to New York (the big city) the weekend of March 15 with the rest of the News Board to attend the Seventeenth Annual Convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Ed recently published his issue of the State College News.

While on the subject of journalism, the boys are doing all right here along that line. Brother Holstein, better known as Ed, was chairman of Publicity for the Junior Prom, held February 21, and Brother Leneker, '43, Sophomore Desk Editor of the State College News, was chairman of publicity for the Sophomore Soiree, on April 4.

Bill Murray has passed everything but the final exam for West Point, so it looks as if the army's gain would be our loss. Forrest, Marsland, Beyer, and Wise are all on the Frosh Basketball team at State. Bill Forrest recently injured his knee in a game, so is temporarily on the casualty list. Bill, 6 ft., 3 inches, 180 pounds, and handsome, ran for President of the Freshman class, but due to a last minute rally of the fairer sex, he was defeated by a girl (pardon our blush) by about two or three votes.

SOCIAL

Top social event of the season for the bachelors of Gamma was the wedding of Wimpy Barrett, '40. Wimpy had been seen in the company of the girl friend for quite some time, but being gay young playboys (don't we wish) the brethren thought nothing of it. Wimpy, with a casual air that attempted to hide the inner qualms, brought the little lady to the house one Saturday morning, and said, "Meet the wife." Vince Gillen, treasurer of Gamma, was the best man, and seemed to be in good spirits about the whole thing, being amply covered with lipstick.

The bride is the former Miss Anne Teale, of Norwich (Wimpy's home town). Saturday night the boys of the house officially toasted the bride and groom, and made them guest-of-honor at a dance scheduled for the evening.

Gamma chapter has held three vic parties since the end of rushing.

GILLEN GETS FIRST JOB

Vince Gillen, '41, is the first Gamma of the year to get a teaching position. The job is in Center Moriches, and Vince will teach commercial subjects.

SPORTS

Intramural basketball finished its season with the Kappa Delta Rho boys standing in third place. Top team this year was the ever-strong quintet from College house. In the last minute of the game with BAR (Brubacher-Avalon, and Robin Hall) a matter of two points kept Gamma from second place. Starting the season slow, the lads lost the first three games. Buckling down, Gamma took the next six games, dropping the last one to BAR, and third place.

Brothers McCreary, Oksala, Gillen, Leonard, Vero, Brophy, Stevens, Beyer, Bombard and pledge Verrey carried the colors for Gamma during the season.

On the All-Star Intramural basketball team chosen by the captains of all intramural teams, Brothers McCreary, Gillen, and Oksala were given berths. McCreary and Oksala were also chosen for the All-Star intramural football team at State.

Paul Merritt, '42, president of the junior class, represented Gamma on the varsity basketball squad.

Baseball season will start shortly, with Gamma being duly represented.

McCreary has been trying for the past two years to get a winter carnival organized here at State, but so far has been unsuccessful. If they do get one, we advise Kusak to sit down this time when going down a hill on a toboggan. This winter Steve rode down hill standing up to demonstrate his prowess to a group of spectators, and ended up with a badly sprained arm.

VISIT TO BETA

We happened to be in Cornell when they were getting ready for Junior week-end, and so naturally stopped in to see the Beta house. We were impressed by the house itself, but more impressed by the friendliness of the reception. They seem to have a swell bunch of fellows up there, and we want to take this opportunity to extend a most cordial invitation to any of the Betas (or any other chapter) who are ever in this vicinity to drop in for a visit with us.

ALUMNI NEWS

Paul Bulger, '36, in addition to being Director of the Student Employment Bureau was named Assistant Principal of Milne High School this year. Milne High is the school, part of "State," where the seniors do their practice teaching. Bulger was recently named acting-chairman of the New York State Institutional Teacher Placement Directors.

Robert Gorman, '39, is guidance director of the Malverne High School.

March 8 was alumni day at State College. Big event was the Varsity-Alumni game, won by the alums. Bulger coached the alumni. Prominent alumni on the team were: Bancroft, Welter, Simmonds, and Havko—all out in the teaching field.

Walt Harper, president of the class of 1940, is now teaching in Phelps.

Delta

Colgate

WINTER CARNIVAL

Braving the cold rain that had been falling for two days, girls from Skidmore, Syracuse, Smith, Mt. Holyoke, Russel Sage, and the University of Pennsylvania invaded Delta February 14, 15, 16 for its winter carnival.

At one time the winter house party at Colgate was always an all-college dance but in 1932 this practice was discontinued. This year marked its reappearance here. There was a private dance at the chapter house Friday night with the Rhode Islanders furnishing the music. Brothers Duke Heinlein, '42, and Russ Ide, '42, were the co-chairmen. President Dick Reid, '41, was in charge of all the financial matters for the Fraternity-Neutral-Freshman Dance Saturday night. Miss Dorothy Casler, date of Bro. Jerry Slade, '41, and from Buffalo State Teachers College, was selected house representative for carnival queen. Mr. and Mrs. Cleaves from Binghamton, parents of Bro. Jack Cleaves, '43, acted as chaperones.

The rains came and the snow display went, still it interfered little with the activities planned for party. The New York State Intercollegiate Ski Association held its annual meet here, Colgate coming in the victor. Saturday afternoon Buffalo State Teachers yielded to our swimmers. Saturday night before the all-college dance, we beat a powerful Western Reserve team at basketball.

Harry James and his orchestra played for the dance Saturday night at the Student Union Building. Twenty members of Delta participated to make this one of the most successful winter carnivals thus far.

VARSITY SPORTS

As spring rolls around Delta again finds herself in the sport spotlight with Bro. Joe Passabet, '41, taking the mound for the varsity nine. This year Joe will be finishing a star-studded career with the Colgate team. Joe has been one of their most valuable players for the past three years.

When the varsity tennis team takes the court this year we will find Delta's Prexy Dick Reid, '41, out there playing his best. Dick has been a tennis player of prominence at Colgate for three years and he will be missed by all when he leaves this spring.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

In the intramural line Delta again scores a winner with Soph Town Carpenter winning the university backstroke championship. Delta's basketball team makes one look twice. It is now in the play-offs for the school crown. It should be mentioned that the sextet represented us on the ice this winter and was undefeated when the semi-finals came around the other day.

With Gabe Chiera and Jerry Slade on the handball courts Delta is bound to come out a winner. Jerry Slade and Dick Hall are holding their own with the best of them on the badminton courts.

In intramural baseball this spring Delta has a team that spells danger for all rivals. Joe Campbell will again be at the hot corner with Jerry Slade pitching and big Joe Hoague on first. This team promises to be one of the best in Delta's history.

On the golf links this year little Bobby Vlachos still remains way above all other competition.

In every respect Delta appears to be a winner this spring.

SPROW, '42, RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON

Every year, as part of the Political Science Educational program, Colgate sends ten students to Washington, D.C., during the first semester of their junior year, under the direction of a member of the faculty. While in the capitol city the men are afforded the opportunity to investigate various departments and bureaus of the governmental structure and to meet numerous prominent officials. It should be noted that Delta has been represented in each delegation during the last few years. In 1938, George Fisk, '40, made the trip, 1939 saw Joe La Forte, Dick Reid, and Jerry Slade included, all members of the class of '41, while Howard Sprow, '42, has recently returned from a very successful semester as a member of this year's group.

SCHOLARSHIP

Colgate University recently announced the recipients of what is probably the highest award and honor obtainable in a college career—election to Phi Beta Kappa. Twenty-one men were elected and Delta with three men on the list, surpassed all other fraternities at the university. The three men thus honored were President Richard A. Reid, '41, White Plains, N.Y.; Joseph La Forte, '41, Binghampton, N.Y., and Gerald J. Slade, '41, Utica, N.Y. These men do not confine all their time to study in accordance with the popular conception of "Phi Betes" however, but are importantly engaged in many campus activities. Reid, in addition to serving as the chapter's president, is a member of the Student Senate and the Varsity Tennis Team. La Forte keeps busy as the Managing Editor of the college newspaper, the Maroon, Assistant Managing Editor of the college year book the Salmagundi, Vice-President of the Pan-Hellenic Council, and chapter Vice-president. Slade, besides being the manager of the university's intramural program, plays varsity lacrosse.

All three men are also members of Konosioni, the senior honor society. Delta, and all of Kappa Delta Rho, may well salute these men for their achievements.

DONALD COLBURN.

Epsilon

Franklin College

PLEDGING

In the last three weeks Epsilon has held pledging services for four new men. These new pledges include Robert Lewis, '43, Youngstown, Ohio; Lee Bob Williams, '43, Edinburg, Texas; Ernest Barton, '44, Rochester, N.Y.; and Alton Kellenburger, '44, Columbus, Ind. These men have ranked high in their stay on the campus, and we feel that they will represent the fraternity favorably in many extra-curricular activities as well as in scholarship. Lewis played varsity football last season and is active in the college choir; Williams is a prominent member of the Wigs and Cues, college dramatic organization; Barton is a member of the choir, and Kellenburger will develop into a valuable man in intramural athletics. These new pledges will also help the chapter in its scholastic average as almost all were at least B average students last semester. Under the guidance of Hugh Miller, our rush captain, we have an excellent chance of pledging several other promising freshmen in the near future.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Epsilon chapter again wishes to compliment our executive secretary, E. Mayer Maloney and the Indianapolis Alumni Association for sponsoring such a successful revival of our Kappa Delta Rho State Dance. Twenty-five couples braved the heavy wind and snow to represent the Epsilon chapter at the formal dance, which was held at the Travertine Room of the Lincoln Hotel in Indianapolis. We enjoyed the danceable rhythms of Jack Berry's orchestra, and Hugh Miller crowned the evening, for our chapter at least, by putting his pin on Miss Reba Fagins. It is our sincere wish that the annual state dance of Kappa Delta Rho will continue to be as successful and Epsilon pledges its full support next year.

Orchids to our "Mother Mead" again, the Christmas dinner with turkey and all the trimmings was certainly delicious as all the members will testify.

In cooperation with the college social scheme of fraternities having exchange dinners with each sorority some time during the season, Epsilon chapter has entertained the Franklin Independent Girls and Pi Beta Phi sorority at the fraternity house. Both organizations reported enjoying the evening very much, in fact some of them are still coming over here with dates.

VARSITY SPORTS

The Epsilon chapter has had its share of men on the varsity basketball team this season. John Duncan is doing quite a lot of playing at one of the forward positions, and Myron Knauff does his share of work at guard position. Gene Fisher, freshman and last year's captain at Riley H.S., South Bend, is developing into a promising player and should be a threat for a starting berth next season. Knauff is finishing his fourth year as a varsity basketball man.

The college baseball season will be a big one for us this season. Myron "Mike" Knauff was chosen playing captain for this season and will hold down the first base position for his fourth year. John Duncan is assured of his starting position at shortstop again, while Ray Hollenback's services are practically indispensable. Hollenback is an outstanding pitcher in the Indiana Secondary College Conference with a record of seven wins and one loss last year. William Spencer has a good chance to keep his regular position of last year in outer field. Freshman Gene Fisher may see action around second base this year which will give us four or five men on the playing field this year.

SCHOLARSHIP

The Epsilon chapter's average for last semester was probably the highest on the campus although final tabulations of fraternity scholastic ratings for the Blue Key scholarship trophy have not been made to date. With the pledging of our last four men we assured a higher scholastic rating for ourselves this semester, and we hope to make it a double killing by taking the Blue Key Fraternity Scholarship Plaque both semesters.

The actives of the chapter, considering scholarship one of the necessities in any fraternity, voted to buy a scholarship plaque upon which the name of the freshman whose grades were highest for the semester would have his name inscribed. The plaque will be left in a prominent place in the house as an incentive to the freshmen.

IMPROVEMENTS

Through local alumni aid, and from profits cleared after operating expenses, we were able to make extensive improvements to the fraternity house. We have added several cots to our spacious sleeping dorm, the overstuffed furniture in the fraternity room has been rejuvenated, and the fireplace in the fraternity room has been relaid in green tile which fits the color scheme of the room perfectly. Two more showers and one more wash basin have been added to the bath room and new light fixtures in the dining room and back hall brings the list of improvements to an end. We wish to extend our appreciation to Consul Knauff and house manager Stan for pushing these projects until they became realities.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR

Epsilon chapter is well represented in extra-curricular activities on the campus. William Spencer, Michael Rubosky, Robert Lewis, Ernest Barton, Gilbert Weed, Cecil Clore, James Early and Hugh Miller are members of the college choir which sings annually at various churches throughout the state at Easter time.

Lee Bob Williams and William Zeigert both have parts, or will assist in the Wigs and Cues production, "What a Life," to be given sometime in April.

Hugh Miller was a member of the college debate team which took part in a national debate tournament. Miller is also president of Delta Alpha Theta, organization for pre-ministerial students.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Our intramural teams have been sweeping toward winning the large intramural cup, symbol of victory in intramural sports thruout the year. So far we have won first places in the softball and horseshoe competition and a second place in volleyball. At present we are tied for first place in the basketball league playoff, and have good prospects of winning the cup in this. The next sport on schedule, the interfraternity swimming meet, gives the Epsilon chapter a good chance to move ahead to a comfortable lead for the big cup. Under the guidance of "Mike" Rubosky we have an excellent chance of annexing the meet as all of our swimmers have had at least one year experience in swimming meets.

CONFINED

Cecil Clore, pledge from Bargersville, Indiana, has been forced to drop out of college classes for several weeks as a result of an appendicitis operation. We sincerely hope he will be with us again soon.

INITIATION
Epsilon chapter held formal initiation Sunday afternoon, March 2, for Gerald Werner Keucher, '41, Pleasantville, New Jersey; Steve Clouse, '44, Oil City, Penna.; and Gene Fisher, '44, South Bend, Ind. Several alumni were present for the initiation, and the entire active chapter and alumni enjoyed a banquet at the fraternity house.

ALBERT PORTER.

Zeta

Penn. State

PLEDGING

Zeta started off her second semester rushing with a bang by pledging four new men, three freshmen and a sophomore. Those pledged were George D. Makibbin, '44, Balboa, Canal Zone; Hugh Murphy, '44, Mt. Lebanon, Pa.; Frederick Krug, '44, Mt. Lebanon, Pa.; and Thomas R. Cummins, '43, Jeanette, Pa.

The pledging of these new men swells the present pledge class to eight, with several more bright prospects in the offing.

The pledging of these men now offsets the deficiency caused through sickness and graduation of four men who did not return for the second semester.

INITIATION

Zeta's winter initiation was held on February 15, with nine men being inducted into our fraternity. Those initiated were Thomas D. Magill, '43, H. Bruce Gardner, '43, John McCreary, '44, Lester G. Stine, '44, William A. Calvert, '44, Jack W. Kelly, '44, Donald S. Boston, '44, James R. Loughran, '44, William H. Matz, '44. Another initiation will be held in May for the present pledge class.

INTRAMURAL WRESTLING

With the intramural wrestling tournament going into the final round Zeta at the present time has five men left of ten entered. Being run off in elimination, four of our men have dropped by the wayside.

Of the five left, three have reached the semi-final round in their respective weights. These are Johnny McCreary, in the 121-lb. class; Jack Reitz, winner of the 121-lb. class last year, now in the 128-lb. division; and Bill Charles, 145-lbs. Bruce Gardner still survives in 136, and Joe McCormick is still holding down his 165-lb. spot.

Getting runner-up honors in wrestling last season with two champions, Zeta at the present time is ranking in third place behind Alpha Chi Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, in total points scored to date. The house has hopes of gaining the championship, but must win two first places to do it.

In basketball, Zeta has won two and dropped one, in three starts. Tau Phi Delta and Sigma Phi Alpha were beaten, and lost to Delta Chi. We are now in second place in our division.

SENIOR BALL

The annual Senior Ball was held on February 28 with 18 men from the house attending. Tommy Dorsey's band officiated, and made the Ball a rip-roaring success, if the presence of 1200 couples signifies anything. It was a great dance, and a great show by Dorsey.

INITIATION FORMAL

Zeta's annual Initiation formal dinner-dance was held Friday, March 7, with everyone in the house taking it in. Music was provided by Rex Rockwell and his band. Being our own dance, it topped Senior Ball as far as we were concerned. It was the best house dance for several years, according to the consensus of opinion. The favors given this time were heavy silver wrist chains with separate blocked letters of KDR hanging from them.

FRANK E. HORPEL, JR.

Eta

Illinois

INITIATION

On February 15, 1941 Kappa Delta Rho at Illinois held its annual spring initiation. The following men were added to the roster of active members: Arthur James Dippold, '42, Edwardsville, Ill.; Charles Thos. Curtis, '42, Western Springs, Ill.; Robert Matson Stacey, '42, Indianapolis, Ind., and Clarence Leo Dunn, '44, Allerton, Ill.

A banquet was held in honor of the initiates immediately following the initiation ceremony.

The name of Dippold is a familiar one in Eta chapter, as Arthur is the brother of Dan, '36.

RUSHING

The second semester rushing program at Eta is rapidly getting into full swing. The new pledges for this semester are Harold Gregorski, '43, of Canonsburg, Pa.; Dale Peters, '42, Benton, Ill.; Truman Gravelie, '42, of Mason City, Iowa, and Lyle Appuhn, '43, DuQuoin, Ill.

Gregorski is a varsity swimmer, and has his numerals in track. He is a protege of Doctor Harold Osborn, Eta, '22, who acquired an enviable reputation in Olympic track and field events. Gregorski will undoubtedly prove a valuable addition to the Illini track team. He is in the pre-Medical School, while Gravelie, Appuhn, and Peters are all in Commerce. Appuhn and Peters are both transfer students from Southern Illinois Normal University.

ELECTIONS

The new officers for the second semester were selected by Eta on January 12, 1941. Charles F. Russell, '41, of Glen Ellyn, Ill., was elected the new Consul to succeed Correll Julian, who has completed his University work towards graduation. Brother Russell will be assisted in guiding the affairs of Eta by the following officers: Charles Victor Stevens, Senior Tribune; Frank M. Muller, Junior Tribune; Ralph F. Haag, Quaestor; John T. Cape, Praetor; Edward C. Tudor, Proprietor; Joseph F. Murphy, Custodian; and Howard A. Grannert, Pontifex.

SPORTS

"Bus" Dunn, who has received his freshman numerals in track, is destined to be a regular on the varsity cinder squad this year. "Bus" also won the mile run in fall intramural track, setting a new intramural record before freshman track practice began.

Eta is again well represented on the wrestling squad this year. Pledge Harver Hyland of Chicago is making a good showing on the freshman squad, and Pledge Bill Tomarus is completing a successful season with the varsity. Since both are wrestling in the 125 pound class, they will probably be competition for each other next year when Harvey becomes eligible for the varsity squad.

Pledge Jack "Flip" Adkins is showing the same flawless form on the Varsity Gym team as he did at the last A.A.U. Gym meet. "Flip" garnered enough points in the first two meets to earn his "I." Although nursing a bad knee, "Flip" is expected to capture the National A.A.U. tumbling crown this spring. He won third place last year, after missing second place by a narrow margin.

GRADUATION

Eta unwillingly said Au Revoir to three men at the end of the first semester, who were graduated from the University. George W. Scheppach, who graduated in Commerce is now with the Commonwealth Edison Co. of Chicago. George is a frequent weekend visitor to the campus, probably being interested in the whereabouts of his pin. John J. Deegan also in Commerce is now taking things easy on a six-week's vacation in Florida. Correll E. Julian, a civil engineer, is now with the Illinois State Division of Highways. He is located in Carbondale, Ill. On a recent visit to the chapter house, he was presented with the traditional gold gavel for having served as Consul.

SOCIAL

Under the leadership of Social Chairman Alfred E. Corduan, Eta swung into the second semester social season with a radio dance at the chapter house March 8, 1941. Extensive plans are being made for the Spring Formal which will be held May 10, 1941. Eta's annual Mothers' Day is to be held soon, and preparations are getting under way.

Illini dancers are now making merry amid the handiwork of Brother Robert Kaiser. Brother Kaiser has charge of the design and construction of all decorations for University dances. He has received much favorable comment for his novel decorative themes.

EDWARD TUDOR.

Theta

Purdue

INITIATION

At twelve o'clock noon, Sunday, March 16, Theta chapter met to conduct into brotherhood six outstanding pledges on the Purdue campus. We are proud to add the names of the following brothers on the chapter roll: Richmond M. Griffith, '43, Nashville, Indiana; Donald E. Corp, '44, Rochester, N.Y.; Robert I. Ronksley, '43, Elm Grove, W. Va.; William H. Scheer, '43, Lomira, Wis.; Cletus H. Tepas, '44, Buffalo, N.Y.; and John M. Gilley, '42, Indianapolis, Ind.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

The Northwestern Triad which was started just two years ago with KDR, PKT, and PK as members held its annual dance in the North Ballroom of the Memorial Union on February 1. Music was furnished by Charlie Agnew and his Band.

RUSHING

While there is no definite system of deferred rushing on the Purdue campus, the general trend has been toward some sort of delayed rush, in which men are pledged during the second semester of their Freshman year and in their Sophomore year. In conformance with this trend, Theta has pledged Matt Stiglitz, '43, East Chicago, Ind.; Bart Kunkle, '43, Peru, Ind.; Pete Lewis, '44, Worcester, Mass., and Fritz Larson, '44, West Lafayette, Ind. They are a fine bunch and are a welcome addition to our pledge class.

INTRA-FRATERNITY AFFAIRS

A great stride has been taken at Purdue toward strengthening the position of fraternities on the campus. An Intra-Fraternity affairs office has been established to act as a mediator between the University and the Greek-letter organizations, and to deal with problems confronting all the fraternities of the campus. This office will consist of one Senior, four Juniors and an undetermined number of Sophomores, and will be considered an Extra-Curricular activity.

ALUMNI NEWS

A monthly paper, THETA TALKS, has been started which is published for the benefit of Theta Alumni. We hope that our paper reaches all the brothers. We would like to hear any reactions which the Alumni may have. Write us!

We have received word from Brother C. A. Perkins that he has moved into a new home at 810 Rutherford in Shreveport, La.

Brother Chambers, '36, is now Lt. W. H. Chambers of the U.S. Army Ordnance Dept. He is now serving at the Savannah Air Base. BOB CARPENTER.

Iota

OFFICERS

Officers elected for the second semester are as follows: Consul, William Kresge, of Ocean Grove, N.J.; Senior Tribune, Maurice Longo, of Scranton, Pa.; Junior Tribune, Jack Clark, of Washington, D. C.; Pontifex, Donald Ready, of Thiells, N.Y.; Centurion, Paul Munson, of New Haven, Conn.; Praetor, Clifford Mannella, of Audobon, N.J., and Propraetor, William Griffiths, of Tamaqua, Pa.

PLEDGING

Bob Koble, '44, of Shamokin, Pa., was added to Iota's pledge list.

SOCIAL

Iota secured second place in the men's division of the "Post-Exam Jubilee," an annual event when fraternities and sororities participate in the presentment of humorous skits before the student body. The chapter this year depicted a circus side-show and featured a strong-man act.

Among the alumni returning for the Junior Prom weekend on Feb. 28 were Carl Stauffer, Charles Catherman, and Bud King, all '40, and Bill Hood, ex '43. Benny Goodman and his Orchestra furnished the musical talent at the Promenade. Bro. Jack King was a member of the dance committee.

Eighteen brothers enjoyed a stag swimming party at the Milton Y.M.C.A. pool one Friday night and arrangements are being made to stage several more of these nude outings before June (the month).

Social Chairman Jack King, of Newton, N.J., is now formulating plans for the annual house-party week-end on May 2 and 3. Jack promises the affair will be bigger and better than ever this year and has made arrangements for the dancing, a banquet and a picnic. Alumni are invited to make merry with the active chapter. Friday night is formal; Saturday night, semi-formal.

Bro. Claude Maines, a pre-legal senior from Newton, N.J., was selected as a member of the Senior Ball Committee. The group has secured Tommy Dorsey for March 28.

SCHOLASTIC

Brothers William McGuire, of Staten Island, N.Y., Bill Griffiths and Pledge Koble were named on the Dean's List for high scholastic attainment.

WILLIAM GRIFFITHS.

Kappa

Ohio State

VARSITY SPORTS

Wrestling season has just come to a close, with Kappa chapter well represented by Bro. George Beshara at 121 pounds, Bro. John Summa at 136 pounds, and Pledge John Santchi at 175 pounds.

Pledge John Santchi is also a candidate for an end berth on the varsity football squad. Letterman Jay Ingram has left with the baseball squad on their southern trip.

INITIATION

During the past quarter Kappa welcomed into active membership two brothers, John E. Musolf from Genoa, Ohio, and John C. Trimmer from Dennison, Ohio. Brother Trimmer is not very patiently waiting final word from West Point as to their acceptance of him as a first year student. If he is accepted he will enter the academy next term.

FOUNDER'S DAY ACTIVITIES

We are looking forward to a large attendance on the part of the Alumni at our Annual Founder's Day Banquet and to the activities of that weekend. It will be the weekend of May 10 and 11 and the following program has been arranged.

SAT., MAY 10 at 2 o'clock: Spring Football Game between two picked teams from the varsity squad.

SAT., MAY 10 at 6 o'clock: Dinner at the Fraternity House.

SAT., MAY 10, 10 P.M.-1 A.M.: Founder's Dance at the Hall of Mirrors, Dechler-Wallick Hotel.

SUN., MAY 11, 1 o'clock: Founder's Day Banquet, Dechler-Wallick Hotel for Kappa Brothers, and also a luncheon at the same hotel for the wives and sweethearts of those attending the banquet.

We invite and urge every brother of Kappa chapter to attend this reunion. We have a swell program planned, and we are counting on you to come and enjoy it with us. Remember the date is May 10 and 11. We will be looking for you.

ROY RENWICK.

Lambda

California

INITIATION

On January 12, Lambda formally initiated five men, namely, Ken Fisher, '43, Redlands, Calif., Bert Janeyson, Berkeley, Calif., Bob Emparon, '44, Berkeley, Calif., Henry Kramer, '44, Paso Robles, Calif., and Bob Tucker, '41, Nevada City, Calif.

The initiation ceremony was followed by a banquet served at the chapter house at which Dr. L. B. Hillis was guest of honor and speaker. Dr. Hillis, who is an authority on Lambda's history, gave a talk covering student problems and a brief sketch of the events leading up to the founding of a chapter of Kappa Delta Rho on the Berkeley campus.

RUSHING

Spring semester rushing started on the 13th of January with Brother Ken Wolfe as rushing chairman. While we were forcefully reminded at almost every turn of the effect that the "draft" was having, we were able to complete a fairly successful rushing campaign. Besides the men pledged for this semester we made a number of contacts with new men whom we feel sure will form a nucleus for our next semester's group of pledges.

The men pledged this semester are:

Bruce Coggins, '44, of Albany, Calif., a member of the University Gymnastics team and majoring in Political Science.

Rudy Kuhn, '44, San Francisco, Calif., a tennis player of no small ability and a member of the Freshman Tennis team. Rudy is majoring in Political Science.

Fred Hanson, '44, San Leandro, Calif., College of Engineering. Fred works in his spare time on the managerial staff of the California Pelican.

J. J. Holloway Sturgeon, '42, engineering major. J. J. is our one and only connection with the theatre. Hails from Santa Maria, Calif. Of late J. J. has been airing his talents with the University Thalian group which produces numerous plays during the semester.

John McInerney, '42, enrolled in the College of Commerce. John is another up and coming member of the Pelican managerial staff.

Robert Chibos, '43, College of Commerce, from Oakland, Calif. Bob transferred from the College of Pacific.

Roger Fitz, '43, enrolled in the College of Engineering, from Glendale, Calif. Fitz is pledge captain, for some strange reason can generally be found close to the source of some of the strange happenings that have occurred lately and generally attributed to the activity of the pledges.

Bill Phelps, '43, from Hemet, Calif., an economics major. Bill spends most of his free time working in the University Library. A true student.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The chapter competed in Intramural Basketball and went to the semi-finals, losing out in a close one. Due to the prevalent rainy season (incidentally the precipitation seems to be a little above normal for Sunny California) the intramural baseball program has been somewhat delayed. We expect to compete in this as well as the rest of the University's intramural sports program.

Consul Les Ley, '41, and Baron Von Fritz I. Fritz is at a very tender age.

Brother Luke Brubaker, '42, a member of the gymnastics squad, won a medal in competition in the Annual Intramural Sports Carnival.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Lambda entertained this semester's group of pledges with an evening of dancing at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley on February 14. Two firesides have been held at the chapter house so far this semester and another is scheduled later. On February 6 the alumni were hosts to the members and pledges at a fish dinner given at the Big Ben Fish Grotto in San Francisco. This was an enjoyable meeting and gave the alumni an opportunity to become acquainted with the pledges.

Other events are the pledge's dance in honor of the members, scheduled for March 22; the Sunday Night Supper, March 16; the Spring Formal April 4th, to be held at the Orinda Country Club; and the final social event of the semester, the annual Charter Day Formal Banquet, which is held at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco on May, 3, 1941.

Lambda has acquired a mascot, or probably a better description would be nuisance, one Baron Von Fritz I, better known as Fritz. He is a thoroughbred Doberman Pinscher and has promise of outgrowing the shortcomings of his earlier career. There are serious doubts entertained by some on this point however.

BOB TUCKER.

Mu

Michigan

At the beginning of the second semester Mu embarked on an intensive rebuilding campaign. On Feb. 9, Monday, of the second week of exams, we had a Kick-off Dinner. There were about fifteen alumni out from Detroit in addition to our National Vice-President, Jack Boyd, and our National Secretary, E. Mayer Maloney. This meeting served to bolster the wavering confidence of the active members, engendering in us a belief that Mu of K.D.R. could and would regain its position on the Michigan campus. We were very pleased to make the acquaintance of the two national officers mentioned above and think K.D.R. is to be congratulated on having chosen them.

With Mayer Maloney here to work with us we began a campaign to make contacts and dates for the big dinner planned for Feb. 23, at which time a number of alumni were out from Detroit. After dinner when three or four of the alumni had given testimonials of what K.D.R. had meant to them when they were in school and what it means to them today we pledged four men to our ranks.

This served more than anything else to bolster the spirits of the boys and we went at the job with renewed vigor born of a renewed confidence. Mayer was here for three weeks, except for a four day leave of absence, and certainly proved to be an almost indispensable cog in our rushing.

We wish to take this opportunity to extend to Mayer the sincerest thanks and to express to him the heartfelt gratitude of the alumni, active members and pledges of Mu for what he did for us. We want to recommend him to our brothers who have not had the pleasure of meeting him and knowing him, as one of the grandest fellows we have ever known. We consider ourselves extremely fortunate in having been able to have him with us and we are proud to call him "Brother." (Special note to Mayer which is to be printed):

[You are hereby instructed, and given orders by Mu not to cut the preceding paragraph in editing this writeup.]

To date we are very pleased with the men resulting from our efforts, having pledged eight men since the beginning of this semester. However, we are not decreasing the intensity of our efforts. The new pledges are Romaine Blandy, '44, Lancaster, N.Y.; James Crowe, '42, Ferndale, Mich.; Emile Gele, '42, Gulfport, Miss.; Malcolm Haines, '44, Corry, Pa.; Finley Moser, '43, Pine Plains, N.Y.; Joseph Straayer, '42, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Stanford Summers, '44, Dearborn, Mich.; and Richard Twitmire, '43, Lancaster, Pa.

One of the boys is a member of the Junior staff of the Michigan Daily, one is a member of the Varsity Glee Club and directs a group of madrigal singers in the International Center; a couple others are active in their church guilds; and another deserves much credit for the fact that he has kept us busy by bringing his friends over for rushing.

We are proud of these boys and know that they will form an excellent nucleus for the rebuilding of Mu on the University of Michigan campus.

ELECTIONS

At the house meeting of February 18, 1941, the following men were elected to the chapter offices: Consul, Philip C. VanNordstrand; Senior Tribune, Norman P. Johnson; Praetor, Arthur J. Pugh; Quaestor, Richard D. Boynton; Pontifex, Woodrow William Rankin.

SOCIAL

On the evening of March 15 the Detroit Alumni Association sponsored a dance for the local chapter. A local band of eight pieces was hired and mighty nice music they provided. One of the high spots of the evening was the playing of the K.D.R. sweetheart song by Pledge Jim Crowe, and its rendition by Brother Richard Boynton. The main purpose of the dance was to interest some of the rushees in Mu's social program and to serve as a mixer for the new men and the alumni. The guests seemed to enjoy themselves and there should be some favorable results.

Those present among the alumni were Brothers Quelette, Coats, Franseth, Robert Boynton, Boynton Brackett, W. Van Hoek, Chesebrough, Benton, Colman, Fields, Ron Innes, Myers, and Brother Charles Hobbs of Theta Chapter, Purdue.

Indiana

SPORTS

Our chapter's representation on the various athletic teams here at Indiana U. is steadily increasing. On the track team, Brothers Dean Foster, '42, and Bill Walton, '43, are our representatives. Brother Foster has made all the important trips as a 220 man. Brother Walton became a candidate for track several weeks ago after an intramural track meet. It seems that Coach Hayes saw Bill make a broad jump of around 21 feet—the first time he had ever tried to jump. As a result, he was issued a track uniform and is now working out daily. The whole house is quite proud of Bill's accomplishments and we're looking forward to great things from him in the future. Brothers Louis Conn, '42, and Bob Ford, '43, are taking care of the managerial work for the track squad. Conn is in line for appointment as senior manager, while Ford was just selected as sophomore manager.

Brother Fred Pfrommer, '42, and Pledge Ray Steffey, '44, are on the varsity swimming team. Diver Steffey has been one of the high point men on an Indiana team which has had a rather unsuccessful season. Pfrommer swam 50 and 100 yard free-style and was on the relay team. Pledge Steffey's accomplishments apparently are not limited to diving, for at the close of swimming season he reports for spring track as a pole-vaulter. At the time of this writing, Ray had also gone to the finals of intramural wrestling in the 145-pound division.

Brother John Ambler is a candidate for the pitching staff on the varsity baseball squad.

SCHOLARSHIP

In the scholastic line, Pledge Bill Siffon, '44, became eligible for Phi Eta Sigma, scholastic honorary, when the registrar's office announced that he had made 16 hours of "A."

INITIATION

A special initiation was held for Jon Evans, '44, of Gary, on Sunday, February 23. The initiation ceremony was followed by a banquet in Brother Evan's honor. Brothers Claude Rich and Ben Miller were guests. Brother Rich is Alumni Secretary for Indiana University while Brother Miller, who will be remembered as an All-American basketball player, is in the Physical Education Department here at I.U.

Pledge Charles Frohman was initiated into Alpha Chi Sigma, national honorary for chemistry majors, on February 23.

NU HONORS JACK GEIGER

Honorary member Professor John L. Geiger celebrated his birthday here at the house on March 5. Formerly head of the school of Music at I.U., Dr. Geiger was surprised with a dinner in his honor. Dr. Eugene Kanning of the chemistry department was also a guest. It was to our knowledge one of the few times Brother Kanning has visited us without being accompanied by Dr. Hartman. Brother Hartman is ill in an Indianapolis hospital. We all want to wish "Doc" a speedy recovery.

JORDAN RIVER

Brother Bob Bright, '42, has received a prominent part in our all-campus musicale, Jordan River Revue. Bob will, of course, make the trip with the show when it plays in Indianapolis.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The intramural office has not released any information as to team standings. Except for outstanding individual work, our intramural season has been rather unsuccessful. Our major-league basketball team met with disaster early in the season, although the minor-league team stayed in the running until the quarter-finals of the league tournament. Pledges John O'Brien, '44, and Jim Aynes, '41, led the house in scoring.

As spring track started, our team showed a decided weakness in the distance and field events, this weakness showing itself in the first meet, which we lost to the N.A.G.U.

CHAPTER ELECTION

The following men were elected on January 27 to serve as officers for Nu chapter: Consul, Charles V. O'Brien, '42; Custodian, John Ambler, '43; Senior Tribune, Robert Bright, '42; Junior Tribune, Dan Bannister, '43; Praetor, Bob Ford, '43; Proprietor, Fred Pfrommer, '42; Centurion, Bill Walton, '43, and Pontifex, Bill Hohe, '43. In addition, the following appointments were made: Rushing chairman, Louis Conn, '42; Social chairman, Dean Foster, '42.

WEDDINGS

Stanley Stoker, Nu, '37, was married on March 16 to the former Miss Florence V. Miller. Mrs. Stoker was a graduate of Indiana University, class of 1940, and a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Their engagement was announced on August 20, 1940. The wedding took place in Gibson City, Illinois, the bride's home. Brother Stoker is employed as a chemist at the Allison Company in Indianapolis. The couple is now living at 3761 North Meridian in Indianapolis.

Miss Ann B. Casey became the bride of Brother Reed Giese, Ex-'41, on March 2, 1941. The couple was married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Casey on their 23rd wedding anniversary. Mrs. Giese was known to us here at the house as a very popular member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Reed was active on the campus as a member of Skull and Crescent, sophomore honorary. Mr. and Mrs. Giese will live at 9513 Pine in Gary.

ALUMNI NOTE

Brother Howard Woods, '34, is now teaching in the private schools of the Panama Railway Company in the Canal Zone.

FRED PFROMMER.

Xi

Colby

SCHOLARSHIP

Xi's excellent scholastic record for the past semester recently won official recognition when the chapter was presented with the coveted Dean's Scholastic Trophy. Xi obtained top ranking among the campus organizations with a percentage record several points higher than any other fraternity. Another record was also established as no member of Xi received a failing grade in any subject. Occupying a high place on the Dean's List of Honor were the names of Brothers Dennison, Hildebrandt, Gurney, Palmer, Tilton, Merrifield, Conly, Cony, and McCarroll.

ELECTIONS

New officers to serve for the Second Semester recently elected are: Worthy Consul, Brother Hughes; Senior Tribune, Brother Blanchard; Junior Tribune, Brother Palmer; Quaestor, Brother Hildebrandt; House Custodian, Brother Helin; Praetor, Brother Slattery; Proprietor, Brother Tilton; Centurion, Brother Burnette; Pontifex, Brother Buck.

INITIATION

In an impressive evening ceremony held on the 16th of February seven freshmen took the oath that makes them members in the brotherhood of Kappa Delta Rho. The candlelight service was lead by Worthy Consul Hughes who was assisted by Pontifex Buck, Senior Tribune Blanchard, Junior Tribune Palmer, and Centurion Burnette. The seven initiates were William Sweeney, Richard Sampson, George Conley, Louis Voltus, Ralph Hilton, Paul Merrifield, Merritt Emerson, all of the class of '44. A banquet at a local hotel followed and was attended by the brothers, initiates, and the K.D.R. members of the faculty. Among the speakers were Dr. Ashcraft, Prof. Euclid Helie, Worthy Consul Hughes, Brothers Palmer, Hildebrandt, and Hilton.

SPORTS

Xi chapter is enjoying an especially active season in sports, both collegiate and intramural. We find men of Xi active in every field of sport. This year Xi has had an unusually good basketball team. Its season was a little delayed by an epidemic of the flu. Xi has played five of its seven games and won four of them. The team is made up of Brothers Blanchard, Burnett, Beal, Dennison, Hildbrandt, Mills, and Palmer.

Xi's bowling team this year is exceptionally good under the able leadership of Brother Palmer. The brothers on this team are Beal, Berry, Hughes, Huntoon and Palmer. The team has bowled four times and lost only once.

Reporting for spring baseball practice were Brothers Dennison, Blanchard, and Slattery. Xi expects a great deal of them this season.

In track Xi is also carrying away honors. We were represented in the B.A.A. games in the Boston Garden by Brother Hildebrandt. Other brothers out for track are Belliveau, Helin, McCarroll and Hilton.

SOCIAL

We gained quite a bit of distinction for snow sculpture which Brother Gurney did for us as one of the attractions of the Annual Winter Carnival held earlier in the winter.

Brother Tilton represented Xi on the Colby Embassy Fraternity Committee. We had as our Embassy Leader Brother Leonard Helie, Pastor of the Second Unitarian Church in Brookline, Mass., class of '32. Brother Buck has been a great help to Brother Tilton in planning for the Embassy meetings.

Three of Xi brothers have started down the road to marriage, for Brothers Hughes, Berry and Palmer have hung their pins.

Pi

Gettysburg College

INTERFRATERNITY WEEK-END

A big interfraternity week-end is planned for March 15, here at Gettysburg. On Friday evening pledges from all the fraternity houses on our campus will attend a mass pledge banquet at the Hotel Gettysburg; there will be several guest speakers.

Meanwhile the various fraternities will play hosts to the other fraternities. Here at Pi chapter we will have representatives from the other fraternities, faculty members and alumni.

Later Friday evening a get-together will be held at the Memorial Gymnasium; skits will be produced by each of the fraternities competing for prizes. Pi chapter hopes to have a prize-winner. By the way rehearsals are going, we believe we do have a prize-winner.

On Saturday, March 15, we will hold our formal initiation at the chapter house. Invitations have been sent to all our alumni and we are planning to have a large turnout. In the evening a formal banquet will be held for our new members.

VARSIITY SPORTS

Pledge Charles Olsen was an outstanding member of the freshman basketball team which went through an undefeated season.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Pi chapter has completed a successful basketball season and we are looking forward to a successful season in mush-ball.

WM. METZGER.

Rho

Lafayette College

RHO INITIATES

On Monday, March 10, Rho chapter had the pleasure of initiating John LaMond, Breslin McKnight, George Melkert, Reed Newcomb, and Edward Relph, all '44, into the bonds of Kappa Delta Rho.

We are also glad to announce the pledging of Elmer Smitley, '44, of Fairchance, Penn. This brings the number of freshmen pledges for the year up to twelve, but we still sorely need sophomores to add to our much-too-small total of four.

SCHOLARSHIP

Our house scholastic average took a substantial upward swing after mid-year examinations. We all feel that this marks the beginning of a trend and the boys are working extra hard to regain the ordinarily good record which Rho has maintained at Lafayette.

Another touchy matter that has been brought up—the lack of Rho men in extracurricular circles—is now being dealt with by urging all Rho men to enter into at least one campus activity.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Due to official dislike for fraternity Hell Weeks, our frosh were dealt with fairly easily during that recent occasion. But one event they shall always remember was the scavenger hunt which sent them looking for everything from a suit of armor to a Calvin Coolidge campaign button and from a folding man-sized bathtub to a belying pin. The highlights of this hunt was a ten-mile trip at five o'clock on a sleepy Sunday morning on the "borrowed" wagon pictured elsewhere in this article.

On March 1 we were greatly disappointed in that only seven out of an expected twenty or so fathers turned up for Dad's Day. The reason for the apparent let down was one of our many snowfalls which tied up traveling facilities in general. But the seven men who came had more than their share of fun and were duly impressed by the somewhat irregular method of living in an all-male organization.

INTRAMURALS

Although we had expected to win the campus table tennis tournament, our team was beaten in the playoffs. But our two bowling teams are doing very well in leading their respective leagues. One has lost but one and the other is undefeated, so we are sure to gain some honors in this sport.

Two of our '44 men, Reed Newcomb and Bres McKnight, were frosh managers of freshman basketball.

RHO ALUMNI NEWS

Rev. Herbert H. Cooper, '32, has been picked as rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Short Hills, N.J. A frequent visitor at the chapter house during football season, Brother Cooper received his bachelor of divinity degree from Virginia Theological Seminary and was ordained in December, 1935.

Sigma

Oregon State

PLEDGING

During the winter quarter Sigma pledged four men. They are Bob Puckett, freshman in B.A. from Keno, Ore.; Frank Watenpugh, freshman in Agriculture from Corvallis, Ore.; Lyle Lindsay, freshman in Engineering from McMinville, Ore.; and Robert Muskrat, freshman in Engineering from Klamath Agency, Ore. These boys show indications of becoming exceptional fraternity men.

INITIATION

Winter term initiation was held Jan. 25, at the Sigma Chapter House. The men accepting the vows of brotherhood were Raymond Smith, Sophomore in Landscape Architecture, from Portland, Ore.; Jay Hughes, Jr., in Forestry, from Chiloquin, Ore.; and George Wieman, freshman in Pre-med from Beverly Hills, Calif. Following the Formal Initiation a banquet was held at the "Brass Duck" in honor of the new members.

ELECTIONS

The following new officers were elected March 3, to lead Sigma activities for the coming year. They are: Consul, Elvis Dickason; Senior Tribune, George Drury; Junior Tribune, Raymond Smith; Quaestor, Bob Cahill; Praetor, George Wieman; Proprietor, Jay Hughes; Pontifex, Bill Allison; Centurion, Bud Anderson; and Custodian, Morris Robertson. A very successful year is expected under the able leadership of these newly elected officers.

HOUSE DANCE

Sigma's pledges did an excellent job of planning and carrying out of their Annual Pledge Dance. It was a costume dance held at the chapter house on Feb. 15. The main features of the decorations were large individual sketches of the members, drawn by Pledges Paul Harmon and Warren Porter.

SPORTS

Brother Howard Carlson, who finished his track career last year, is assistant track coach under Grant Swan will ably aid in molding a strong Oregon State track team.

Pledge Bruce Taylor is out for freshman track as a hurdler.

Pledge Sherwood Frakes is a freshman pole vaulter.

Pledge Robert Muskrat is a freshman middle distance runner.

Brother George Wieman has high hopes of becoming one of the mainstays of the freshman golf team.

Brother Bill Allison is manager of the varsity baseball team which shows promise of again winning the Northern Division Pacific Coast championship.

Upsilon

Fresno

NEW HOUSE

The biggest announcement that Upsilon has to make is that of a new house. After a good deal of waiting, hoping, and working the deal was swung. The house is a two story stucco building trimmed in green and is situated just across the street from the campus. In the back yard there is a swimming pool which as yet has not been put into use because of the weather. Immediately across the street on the campus are the tennis courts, which are now populated by KDR brothers a good deal of the time. It is without a doubt the best looking and most ideal house on the campus.

We may now be reached by writing to KDR, 1023 Weldon Ave., Fresno, Calif.

The formal opening was held the Sunday before the opening of our Spring semester, at which time we had an informal banquet. Those attending were the parents of the pledges and members, Dean Michel P. Briggs and President Frank W. Thomas. Karl Buckman performed the duties of toastmaster. The officers for the spring semester were installed. Installation ceremonies were conducted by Sponsor J. Fred McGrew. Upsilon now has the following leaders: John Luther, Consul; Ed Lamme, Senior Tribune; Ed Zirklebach, Junior Tribune; Charles Fisher, Quaestor; and Oren Lee Christensen, Proprietor.

NEW SPONSOR

Upsilon is also very proud of its new, additional sponsor. Verne D. Delaney, in the music department, is the new man, and take it from us, he is really tops.

PLEDGING

Upsilon has pledged, so far this semester, several swell fellas. They are Bob Butler, '42, music major (he plays a plenty hot trumpet, piano, french horn, clarinet, and violin); Roy Cass, '43, music major; Bob Clark, '43, music major; Norman Katen, '43, speech major, vice-president of the Bronze Buckle; and Barden Finch, '43, but who is preparing to leave with the National Guards shortly.

SOCIAL

A rush affair was staged with the military theme. Several machine guns and rifles were obtained from the school museum and a sandbag barcade was erected around the fireplace. The evening was spent very informally playing cards and roulette (with fake money). Several of the members obtained officers uniforms. The evening was broken in twain by an air raid alarm which was sounded in another room. Everyone was ordered into the basement while a sound effects record was turned on. After two or three minutes of bedlam the all clear signal was sounded and activities resumed. The members entertained their lady friends at an informal sport dance recently. There was some entertainment furnished by the pledges and light refreshments were served, in time for the 11 o'clock, weeknight, curfew.

SPORTS

The intramural bowling tournament is in the process of being run off at this writing. The KDR team is progressing slowly but surely and in the next issue we will have a report as to the outcome. The approaching intramural softball tournament has resulted in the organization of what appears to be a swell team.

SCHOLASTIC

Upsilon is very proud to report its scholastic standing for the fall semester of 1940. It came in second on the campus. We have retained that position for our entire existence here at Fresno State. This semester, however, we are looking forward to taking position number one.

Upsilon succeeded in placing a man among the newly-elected officers of the Interfraternity council, in the person of Oren Lee Christensen as vice-president.
