THE CHAPTERS REPORT

ALPHA

By DAVE OTIS

Last spring during rushing, Ed Adams used to promise the rushees that some time the KDR's would put a roof on their house. This fall saw the promise fulfilled. Not only had the roof been repaired, but extensive replastering, repainting, repapering, replumbing and re-equipping had also been done and Alpha's house was once again fit to live in.

By the beginning of summer vacation Alpha alumni had chipped in to the tune of five thousand odd dollars and later on in the summer the six thousand mark was reached. With this vote of confidence backing them up the trustees went to work. In spite of the scarcity of any kind of labor and most kinds of materials they managed to scrape together a crew of workmen. All the ceilings with plaster down (and this included nearly every room in the house) were replastered, all the interior woodwork was repainted, new wallpaper was hung throughout the building, and all the floors were either painted or sanded down and refinished. A new kitchen gas range and a new kitchen sink were installed. The cooling unit of the refrigerator had to be completely overhauled, and a new motor installed. A new, larger hot water heater was purchased and a new, larger water tank and an oil burner for the furnace are still in the offing. Some of the boys got together in the latter part of the summer and refinished all the dining room furniture and cleaned all the living room furniture.

For the several men who were able to return a week early this fall there were still hundreds of details to attend to. Furniture had to be moved from room to room for the advancing workmen, drapes had to be hung, furniture had to be collected and placed in the rooms, to mention only a few details.

Much credit is due the alumni of Alpha chapter and particularly to Hilton Bicknell, Lester Ingalls, and Sam Guarnacia for the success of the campaign which saw Ed Adams doing the bulk of the work in getting out letters to the alumni.

DELTA

By TOM WILSON

Delta's ship of state is on the seas again. After being in drydock for the last few years, Delta chapter has officially reopened this fall with nineteen brothers and seventeen boarders living in the house. Although the alumni drive, from which so much was expected, did not materialize as we had hoped, the house was able to have all the floors sanded and varnished this summer. Further renovations to the house were impossible because the married veterans lived in the house this summer.

However, much work and money is still needed to get the house back into tip-top shape. After we have been able to redecorate the house with the support of all Delta brothers in this drive, we assure them that their chapter will have no peer.

Bob Asman as rushing chairman is getting prepared for another heavy rushing season. He promises results, with the usual Delta standard being upheld all down the line.

EPSILON

By De LOS LONZO

Epsilon is back on the Franklin College campus after a three-year absence. We are back stronger than ever, and thanks to our Alumni Association our house is in better shape than it has been for years.

The first day of school we met and elected officers:

Consul—De Los Lonzo
Senior Tribune—Les Loomis
Junior Tribune—Lee Erbagh
Praetor—Les Loomis
Propraetor—Jim Early
Quaestor—Gene Addington
Pontifex—Jim Early

Athletic chairman—Ken Whitaker
Scholarship chairman—Don Winstead

Social chairman—Jack Houze
Custodian—Howard Keller

Under these officers we have pushed forward and held our first mixed social event almost immediately. It was a mixer and was a tremendous success; 300 people visited our chapter house in two hours.

In the first week we initiated three new men into the brotherhood. Paul Ohlrogge, Don Willis and Howard Keller were initiated.

This summer brothers Keller, Whitaker and Lonzo did our rushing and did a fine job, having 18 pledges when school opened. Since that time we have added 5 more, to bring our total number of pledges to 23. With 11 actives we now have 34 members.

On September 23 we entertained the local alumni at a smoker. This was followed by a gala post-war homecoming on October 19 when all the old grads came back to enjoy the hospitality of Epsilon.

Epsilon is now moving forward, and would like any KDR in our district to drop a line to KDR, Franklin, Indiana, so we can include them in our functions for the coming year.

Interfraternity softball has just started and in our opening game Pledgee Wamsley and Brother Lonzo shut out the Lambda Chi's with no hits.

We have only a good start—the best is yet to come.

ZETA

By WILLIAM L. BROWN, JR.

Zeta is opening strong at Penn State this semester. We now have 28 brothers and 14 pledges living in the house and eight brothers back at school but living outside the house. Seven of the latter are married and have their families here at school with them.

The house itself is filled to slightly more than capacity, but old friendships renewed and new ones made promise good times along with the studies. The house was filled to about half its capacity during the summer sessions, and the brothers put in much of their time improving the house and grounds. Materially and financially, the prospects seem good for Zeta during the coming semester.

Our officers will include Jack Reitz as Consul, Les Stine and Lee McQuisteen as Senior and Junior Tribunes respectively, and Dave Rollison as Praetor. Lou McCormick has taken over the post of house manager; he is directing a full-time program of meals prepared by steady cooks.

In summing up, Zeta is proud to announce that she has come through the war in good shape and is now looking to improve beyond a basis of normalcy.

ETA

By THEODORE B. WIESE

(Sec. Chicago Alumni Assoc.)

Eta chapter announces the pledging of 41 men for the new term just beginning. This group, together with 7 actives known to have returned to date, gets Eta off to a big start in reactivating the chapter following the war years. Although conditions were extremely favorable for getting new men this year, this solid group of 41 men was the climax of weeks of hard, intensive rushing this summer by Eta alumni, headed by Art Abbott, '29, rushing chairman. Splendid cooperation on the program was given by alumni, especially in the Chicago area.

At a rushing banquet held in Chicago on August 22 we had a turnout of almost 60 men, and many of the prospects were looked over and selected at that time. It is planned to continue a vigorous rushing schedule throughout the year at Champaign until a quota of approximately 55 men has been achieved, which will fill the house to its utmost capacity.

In an election of officers held in Champaign September 21, the following brothers were elected:

Consul—Harvey E. Elder.
Senior tribune—Clarence Dunn.
Junior tribune—W. Beile.
Quaestor and Commissary — Joseph Murphy.
Centurion—Edward Graham.
Pontifex—Lee Vranek.
Propraetor—Jack Appuhn.

THETA

By PETE STRONG

Theta's beloved castle on the hill is jammed with many of its pre-war actives back and some 34 pledges, at latest count. That's a grand total of 60, most of whom are living in the house. Like most Greek houses at Purdue we are about 30 per cent overcrowded and continuing to rush.

The active chapter elected Robert Ronksley as Consul for the fall semester. Other officials are Brother Bickle, Senior Tribune; Brother Ulrich, Junior Tribune; Brother Henriksen, Praetor; Brother Montenero, Centurion; Brother Strong, Propraetor; Brother Steele, Pontifex; Brother Budai, Custodian; Brothers Roberts and Grey, Social chairmen, and Brother Evans, athletic manager.

In the social department we opened the semester with a house dance Saturday night, September 28. The social committee has a full social calendar lined up for the rest of the semester.

"Cec" Evans, as athletic manager, takes over a strong softball team which with some new pitching talent should do well for the name of KDR on the campus.

We seem to be pulling out of our post-war growing pains in admirable style. The difficult task of adapting our GI's to pledge life we seem to have accomplished without compromising the traditional views of the chapter towards pledgship.

IOTA

By AL VITRAY

With a formal meeting held on September 24, Iota returned to the Bucknell campus and to the active rolls of the fraternity after an absence of more than three years. Eight active members form a nucleus which, with the help of the chapter's alumni, hopes to see KDR quickly return to its former place of prominence on the campus.

Elections were held for all offices, with Bill Huff, who sparked this summer's reorganization drive, being elected Consul. Also elected were: Brian Sword, Pro-consul; George Shoemaker, Praetor; Harry Powell, Quaestor; and Al Vitray, Propraetor.

In preparation for rushing, starting October 8, Robert McBride was appointed rushing chairman. Plans were made for an energetic rushing campaign, and the possibility of starting a dining room in a private house is being considered.

Concurrent with maintaining social and intramural sports activities as nearly normal as possible, the chapter is continuing the drive, started this summer, for funds with which to purchase a new home. Several properties are under consideration, but no decision has yet been made.

Plans have been formulated for a home-coming banquet at the Hotel Lewisburger on October 26, and it is hoped that as many alumni as possible will be on hand to renew old friendships and see for themselves how things are going at Iota.

KAPPA

By M. D. MUNN II

Peace has reigned at Kappa chapter for the past four months. After the hectic days of preparation, and the Convention itself, many of the men went home to long, lazy vacations.

Summer quarter here at Ohio State saw only about half of Kappa's men in school. But now that the fall session has begun, we've started off with a bang.

Long have we looked forward to having the house kitchen open. Now, with long lines in the campus cafeterias and the off-campus restaurants, our men are gloating to themselves that the kitchen is finally open, and serving meals to men hungry after long hours spent in wearying classes.

We're proud to say that out of the huge number of freshmen entering the university, we have pledged our share. Into the house we've moved 10 new freshmen, and have about five more, in addition to our old men, living outside the house.

We have a promising sight before us; the chapter is completely reactivated, back on its feet and stronger than ever, so that this year of 1946 cannot help being one of the most glorious and grandest in the history of Kappa chapter and Kappa Delta Rho.

LAMBDA

By NORMAN CARMICHAEL

Lambda's goal this semester is an "inside" membership of 32 men residing at the chapter house and 13 "outside" memberships of local fellows. To meet this we are well along the road to a total class of 23. We feel confident that this will be accomplished.

Our first social function was held on September 28 when we had a "fireside" dance the evening after the opening game of the Cal. season—that with Wisconsin.

Incidentally, the registration on the Berkeley campus of the University of California has topped 20,000. Some of the old grads might be interested in the present enrolment.

NU

By HERB FARRELL

Nu chapter is starting this semester with 52 in the house. Although school did not start until October 11 because of the housing shortage, we have completed many internal improvements, and the house looks swell. Many of the boys have returned to Indiana U. after serving their country in one way or another.

We are looking forward to one of our most successful years, with many of our traditional events being restored. Initiation for six pledges will be held in a few weeks.

Officers for the coming semester follow:

President—Herb Farrell.
First Vice President—John Ambler.
Second Vice President—Steve Cheleff.
Secretary—Robert Dwyer.
Treasurer—Bill Gale.

PI

By KEN WOHLFERT

Since you last heard from us things have been happening here at Pi chapter. During the summer the house, which had become rather weather-beaten during the war, was repainted and partially redecorated. The brothers who were here repainted the rooms and in general straightened the place up so that we would be all set to move in this fall. However, because of the delayed construction on the new housing project, the college didn't open until the first of October, so we've had to utilize these last couple of weeks in putting on the final touches. Just now things are looking pretty good here at the house.

This summer we initiated six men; two Theta Phi's, Al Hamme of York, Pa., and R. Cook from Lockhaven, Pa., besides pledges Dan Borregard of New Rochelle, N. Y., Al Malkemes of Shaverstown, Pa., Ray Naus of Merchantville, N. J., and Paul Nere of Valley Stream, L. I., N. Y. After the initiation, which took place on August 23, we had an informal meeting of Pi alumni and the active brothers. At this time Brother Ferd Ensinger, National Secretary, gave us a short talk on the reactivation that all chapters are faced with.

The termination of the summer term found Pi's softball team tied for third place in our intramural league.

The first formal dance in some years is being planned for the end of October. To start our rushing campaign we have lined up several smokers. We expect to have a goodly number of co-eds and entering freshmen at an open house we are planning in addition to the smokers.

With the coming of the new season we are in hopes of a good pre-war pledge class and a big year for Pi chapter.

XI

Among all the optimistic reports of chapters to come in this month appears one which is not typically Kappa Delta Rho. The only report available from Xi chapter at Colby was from Charles W. Berry, Jr., who represented the chapter at the convention in Columbus. He reports that as far as he knows three actives are returning to the campus this year but he has been unable to contact any of them. Letters go unanswered. Rather discouraging to him is the fact that Kappa Delta Rho is the only fraternity on the Colby campus which has not started reactivation plans or made arrangements to raise the $15,000 necessary for building a new house on the transplanted campus. (The college is planning to equal the amount raised by a fraternity.)

Charlie has been very active in KDR at Colby and would like to hear from Xi alumni anywhere as to their attitude towards the problems at Colby. He may be contacted at 44 Coyle Street, Portland 5, Maine, and your editor is sure that all suggestions and comments will be in good hands with Charlie. He does not want KDR to fall by the wayside at his alma mater but he does want to know just what his fellow alumni feel about it. Write him today and tell him.

RHO

By LESTER J. KENNEDY

Rho chapter sends its most hearty thanks to the loyal brothers who aided in the reactivation of Rho chapter. Our house has been opened with the help of our generous alumni's contributions, along with the diligent work of the brothers now in Lafayette.

One of the largest freshman classes in the history of Lafayette entered this fall. This is a most opportune time for rushing. We shall take advantage of this opportunity to build a larger and stronger house. Specifically speaking—"Things look good all around."

Nominations of officers for the coming year took place at a formal meeting, called to order by Ex-Consul Lester Kennedy on September 24, 1946. Topics for discussion were all related in that they were a means toward a unified, pleasant, and academically stronger house in which all would participate.

Rho is determined to cultivate the acquirement of sound learning, to instill a greater loyalty to one's school, to aid in the development of character, to give its members an intimate beneficial fellowship with good men, to inculcate among its members such ideals as will result in actions worthy of the highest precepts of true manhood, democracy, and humanity. With this program we cannot fail.

SIGMA

By E. A. DICKASON

Sigma has started off in full swing in the post-war fraternity life on the Oregon State campus. During the war the house was used as a boarding house while all Sigma men were gone, but last spring a small nucleus of old men started the ball rolling and building of Kappa Delta Rho again on the campus. We are happy that all fraternities at Oregon State survived the war and are operating again and giving the college some of the aspects of pre-war days. Late last spring we initiated 5 new men into Sigma: Jack Ditto, Larry Barnes, Larry Stark, Hal Myers and Edward Rieben.

Under the leadership of Consul Liles this year's organization has started and is rarin' to go. Ten men were pledged in the first pledging session and plans outlined for the second rush period and the remainder of the year. Although school was delayed because of housing construction the fraternity is going ahead and planning a big program for the year. Intramural football practice is being held and plans being formed to enter all activities. This year 17 old members are back, 18 old pledges have been added and with the new men we hope to have the house on top.

Regardless of the housing shortage in Corvallis we have kept the guest room empty and welcome the alumni to drop by and see us again. We hope to see all of you homecoming for the annual Oregon grind. You will find a redecorated chapter house from top to bottom and Sigma looking its best in years.

Indiana, Colgate Lead KDR With Football Luminaries

With two chapters showing the way, Kappa Delta Rho actives have already made football headlines all over the country in the persons of John Cannady (NU '47—Indiana) and Bob Orlando (DELTA '47—Colgate). Although neither plays on a team in the running for a championship both have already covered themselves and their chapters with honors because of their stellar play.

The opening of the season found both in the running for honors on their respective teams. Football annuals from coast to coast predicted (and not without accuracy) their powerful line play. Among these the 1946 Illustrated Football Annual is typical: "This section (Midwest) has few better centers than John Cannady, a bulldozer at backing the line," and "Bill Groh, kingpin of the '45 primary at guard, will be replaced and then some by Bob Orlando. Bob would have captained the '43 team if he hadn't gone to war, and the skill and spirit of his pull-out blocks recommends him for the honors list."

With the season half over at this writing it is safe to say that such advance publicity was not exaggerated. Cannady has been a powerhouse on the defense for Indiana, saving touchdowns in almost every game by his stand-out defensive play. Orlando not only does some real blocking for Colgate but drops back after touchdowns to kick the extra points.

Bob Orlando has also added new laurels to his already brilliant athletic career by an almost unanimous election to the post of Consul of Delta chapter. Being "captain" of a reactivated chapter is no simple task but Bob's leadership, personality, and popularity are serving him in getting one more chapter back to pre-war levels.

BOB ORLANDO, COLGATE CAPTAIN

Once finished with football Bob concentrates on field events in track, picking up many important points with his tosses of the shot, javelin and discus. Delta chapter is justly proud of his achievements and the entire fraternity salutes Bob Orlando, captain of football and Kappa Delta Rho and a member of the All-East eleven in 1943. We wish him the best of luck in all his activities.

To these stand-outs and regulars might be added other KDR's who week after week take their turn in relief work: John Kokos, tackle, (NU '47—Indiana), and Puksta (ALPHA — Middlebury), both reliable when the going gets tough. Later reports will no doubt show many more KDR's doing their bit for the football world; versatility is no new word with Kappa Delta Rho.

Undergraduate News From Many Campuses

Scholarship Wonders

Lambda reports of the wonders that a good scholarship standing on campus can do for the houses were emphasized during rushing this semester. At the time of registration, the campus newspaper carried a list of scholarship standings. A large number of rushees were noticeably impressed by Lambda's #8 position on the list. (Editor's note: Lambda pledged four high school honor students.)

Honeymoon A La KDR

What might be called a Kappa Delta Rho honeymoon was that of Walter Garman, Jr., of Pi chapter. Just married this summer and bringing his wife back for the fall term, he tells how he visited Alpha and Zeta chapters on his way back from his honeymoon in Canada. Could be that in the future all chapter houses will have to have a bridal suite! They could really entertain in style then.

Dischargees Return

Delta returnees from the armed services this term include Gary Hohn, "Chuck" Guernsey, Jack Merwath, Jim Quigley, "Pitch" Thurston and "Tex" Wertz.

Youngest Professor

Pi chapter can boast of the youngest faculty member in the modern history of Gettysburg if Ed Perry, '46, accepts the position offered to him. Graduating with honors, after which he was invited to join the faculty as an instructor in German, he entered the Seminary this fall. His loss to Pi will be felt keenly as he was out for varsity soccer, captain of the varsity debate squad, president of the I.F.C., and Pi's delegate to the '46 convention. His brilliant record will go with him wherever he goes, and his indefatigable industry will open new doors to him in the future.

Class Commuter

Bob Watson, Alpha, manages to commute to classes every morning at Middlebury despite the fact that he and his newly acquired wife live a few miles outside of town.

Actives Enlist

John Rothschild and Bob Cole, Delta, enlisted in the Army just before the fall term began. Bob was propraetor of the chapter.

In Glee Club

Brothers Elmandorf and Bendorf (Lambda) represent KDR in the University of California Glee Club.

How To Earn Your Way

New ideas on how to put yourself through college without selling magazines.

Roy Renwick, Kappa, is making money going away in a floor sanding business. Rumors have it that he has amassed his roll and is willing to listen to offers. Any bids?

Pledge "Itch" Romano, Kappa, conducts psychological (Oh, yea?) clinics on a mass basis by diagnosing any student's ailments for a flat fee of two bits. Maybe he doesn't get rich that way, but we bet he knows about every co-ed who just had a fight with her drag. "Itch" also writes for Ohio State magazines. How about an advice to something or other, Itch?

Asset Or Liability?

Included in the ratables at Colgate (Delta) is a 1924 Jewett which the boys report "makes as much noise as mileage."

Second Generation

Harrison Miles, son of Russell H. Miles, Eta '25, of Kingsport, Tenn., is in the pledge class at the University of Illinois.

Theta Places Seven

Seven members of Theta chapter made "distinguished" in scholarship for the spring semester. Theta chapter assures KDR that the castle on the hill doesn't take a back seat for anyone at Purdue. The chapter is awaiting an announcement to be made any day now, that they have been the winner of the Interfraternity Scholastic Improvement Trophy. Let's hope they add it to their case.

Gales Have Four In KDR.

Cumberland, Indiana may just be a dot (population 612) on the map but it is the capital of Kappa Delta Rho families for it is there that the Gales live. To Epsilon and Nu the word Gale is nothing new; Hugo M. Gale, E '22, became a charter member and continued to enhance his interest in KDR while changing his profession from teaching to life insurance underwriting in Indianapolis.

Today five members of the family wear the KDR badge, four Gales and Stanley M. Strohl, E '23, also a charter member of Epsilon who married into the family when he took unto himself a sister of Brother Hugo. Besides the two charter members of Epsilon KDR now boasts of three more Gales: Bill, N '42; Roger, E '46; and Dick, N '46, all sons of Hugo and all now members of Nu chapter at the University of Indiana. (Roger transferred from Epsilon this year.)

All have been active in Nu chapter, all have been ardent and loyal supporters of Kappa Delta Rho, but the Gale family still boasts of another son Mark who plans to enter Purdue to continue his studies. There it is hoped he will continue the family tradition and add still another chapter to that of the family's fraternity history.

With six members of the family in the ranks it will be safe to say that the Gales will "win in a breeze." And don't forget also that every family gathering will also be a Kappa Delta reunion.

NOTICE

The National Interfraternity Conference will be held in New York City at the Commodore Hotel on Friday and Saturday, November 29th and 30th. Kappa Delta Rho representatives will probably be executive-secretary Ferd B. Ensinger; treasurer Bill Everts and editor Don Wolfe.

The Board of Directors will meet on Saturday, November 30th at the Commodore according to present plans. All Board members have been invited to attend a dinner of the New York Alumni Association Saturday evening.

Lambda Eighth In Scholarship

Lambda chapter stood eighth on the scholarship list last semester out of the 35 fraternities on the campus of the University of California. Their grade point was 1.666 as compared with a perfect 3. and an all university average of 1.2. Lambda chapter has a knack of combining a full social program with a high scholarship rating, and the QUILL AND SCROLL congratulates them again on their excellent scholastic standing on the Berkeley campus.

The reactivation of Kappa Delta Rho, or of any fraternity for that matter, raises a question of relationship between actives and alumni. Interdependence is of primary importance in the solution of our problems, but the correct perspective by both groups will aid in future relationships of the two.

The alumni have done a valiant job in putting the chapters back on a pre-war level. Contributions from them have re-decorated, re-furnished and in many cases re-financed houses depleted by war inactivity. With more money invested in the house they therefore feel more keenly than ever an interest in the kind of men pledged and the officers chosen. Their interest is in seeing that the actives accept the moral obligation which reactivation has placed upon them.

On the other hand the actives feel that they shouldn't be asked to assume any responsibilities that can't be placed directly on their door-step. They resent to some degree the over-interest of the alumni in seeing that affairs run smoothly and follow the traditions of KDR. Their resentment is natural but unfounded. Chapters having actives who follow the best traditions of their fraternity will find no interference even from the highest contributor among the alumni.

Most chapters have made the adjustment courageously and without incident. Alumni have not imposed themselves upon the actives because of a $5 contribution towards a new sink, but have worked with the actives in a spirit of cooperation that has produced results; actives have accepted graciously the help and advice of experienced alumni.

Such a spirit means much for the future of KDR; it explains why we have made such a rapid recovery since the war. If anybody dares to insinuate that the traditions of KDR are not as they were, point with pride at our rapid reactivation. Its accomplishment was possible only by the cooperative give and take of both actives and alumni. That is in the best Kappa Delta Rho tradition.

WILL YOU BE ONE OF THE 22%

Last month every active alumnus of Kappa Delta Rho received a report of the alumni dues campaign for 1946-47. The implication was plain—that unless we as active alumni support the program of reactivation, Kappa Delta Rho will be in the red by $1253 on June 1947.

Last year 407 alumni aided in gaining a substantial foothold in the post-war fraternity world. Our goal this year, in order to hold all gains made last year, is 1,000 paying alumni or 22% of our entire membership.

It is a high goal—but KDR goals have always been high. We have reached them before; we shall reach this one with your help.

If you have forgotten to send in your $2 don't put it off a day longer. Don't forget—Bill Everts is waiting to hear from every member of KDR.

You can be one of the 22% by sending in your dues—NOW.

Alumni Dues Campaign Off To Good Start

The Alumni dues campaign for 1946-47 is now officially under way. Bill Everts, treasurer, is kept busy daily making out reports of those dues arriving with every mail. Already, indications are that this year's drive will so far surpass that of last year that the entire deficit of $1253 will be wiped out.

Kappa Delta Rho is far ahead of most fraternities in its post-war program, but it has cost some effort and some money to get there. Certainly it will be well-spent if the traditions and integrity of KDR can be maintained during a trying period of college history. The support of the alumni has been a deciding factor during the past year; it will be the deciding factor in the year to come.

Delegates to the 1946 Convention in Columbus voted unanimously that alumni dues were essential for at least one more year if KDR was to go ahead. Every item in the budget was weighed, and passed as absolutely essential to the life of the fraternity. A careful study of the budget will confirm their vote.

Many fraternities have had alumni dues for years, considering them necessary to the complete service that should be rendered by their national offices. So far, KDR has had to institute them only as an emergency measure. Many fraternities have merged but KDR has managed to keep her sovereignty and identity, thanks to the alumni who believed in her and wanted her to live.

One of the greatest years in KDR history is ahead of us. After the progress that has been made during the past year it appears certain that KDR is going to show the greatest record in her history by June 1947. It would be too bad if she missed by $2.

Here And There With KDR

Bob Caldwell, B'40, Now Vice Consul

Bob Caldwell, Beta '40, is now American Vice Consul with the American Embassy in Athens, Greece. He is currently in charge of visa work.

Since Bob graduated from Cornell in 1940 he has gotten his M.A. and Ph.D. at Johns Hopkins University. He spent a year with the American Embassy in Cairo, Egypt, and another year-and-a-half with the Embassy in Athens, where he lived through the revolution of December, 1944. Since then he married (March 12, 1945) and received the promotion already referred to.

His address is now: c/o Foreign Service Mail Room, Department of State, Washington 25, D. C.

Stag Party

A stag party of KDR's was the climax of LAMBDA'S homecoming celebration on November 9, following the U. S. C.-California game. Held at the Elks Club in Los Angeles, it was well attended and certainly one of the high-lights of the chapter's social season. Many alumni, some from great distances, were there to make the affair one grand reunion of LAMBDA of KDR.

Riedmaier, T'31, Now a Store Planner

Edward R. Riedmaier, Tau '31, is now in charge of "Store Planning" for Flannery and Associates of Pittsburgh. He was formerly with Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company in the same capacity, but has expanded to include many manufacturers and chain stores in his new position. His home address is 5558 Avondale Place, E. Pittsburgh, Pa.

Bud Porter Now In California

Marion A. (Bud) Porter is now studying law at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, since his discharge from the hospital last Christmas.

Bud was on a Flying Fortress that was shot down over Germany during the war and he was a German prisoner for fifteen months. His treatment, his mother writes, was not "too good" and so he was hospitalized upon his release.

The family moved to California from Indiana because of Bud's health. He would be glad to hear from any of his old friends at 860 S. Merced Avenue, Baldwin Park, Calif.

KINDLY INFORM

New York Alumni Reorganize for Busy Year

Friday, the thirteenth, is not unlucky for the alumni of New York and vicinity for on September 13 they turned out to the number of 24 to reorganize the New York Alumni group, disbanded during the war. After banqueting at the Hotel New Yorker, those attending conducted a lively meeting filled with plans for a much larger and better attended meeting the end of November. Tentatively planned for the Friday evening when the Board of Directors is in New York for their fall meeting, a system is now being worked out so that every alumnus within 50 miles of New York will receive a personal invitation to the dinner.

With 300 members of the fraternity living within this area Executive Secretary Ferd B. Ensinger, who engineered the dinner, hopes that attendance can be increased at least 100, so as to let fraternity membership serve as a social escape from every-day business life.

High-lighting the reorganization meeting was Orrin Judd, Delta '26, who spoke about the ideals and history of KDR. Ferd Ensinger spoke briefly concerning the need for social contacts and Don Wolfe, editor of our national magazine QUILL AND SCROLL, spoke briefly about the editorial policy of our fraternity publications. Greeting the multitude was John Blakely, national president, who had just returned from convalescence following a serious illness.

Among the notables attending were: George Shaw, ever-present director; Carl E. Seabergh (Delta), famous for Frostar frozen food stores; Lincoln Crisson, architect (Beta); and Walter E. Gorman, Sr. and Bill Sandlas, the last two both making the trip from Baltimore. Chapters represented included Alpha, Beta, Gamma, Delta, Eta, Pi, and Rho. Several actives just out of service attended.

Alumni Honors To John L. Ryan, '40

Highest honors for 1945-46 Alumni Dues go to Major John L. Ryan, Gamma '40 and Military Air Attache of the American Legation, Baghdad, Iraq. Many contributions were higher than the $2 set by the Board of Directors but John's $20 was 'tops.' John, therefore, becomes a Super Life Member of KDR, and he places Gamma at the head for the individual contributor making the largest payment of alumni dues.

APOLOGIES

The card index file in the office of the QUILL AND SCROLL was unable to furnish us with all information of those paying alumni dues for 1945-46. We hope that transportation difficulties will soon be cleared up so that we can move the large files from Middlebury. Until then kindly bear with us if we don't have your complete history.

While in the service he was with the Eighth Air Force in Europe where his decorations included the E.A.M.E. theater ribbon with six battle stars, the Good Conduct Ribbon, and the Distinguished Unit Citation. He accepted a position with the Acme Paint Company upon his release from the service.

The kindly sympathy of the entire fraternity goes out to his wife and baby daughter.

He was a three-year letter man at Penn State, being an excellent baseball player. Upon his graduation he became principal in the Huntington Mills Public Schools, Luzerne County, Pa., for a short time, leaving there to become field representative for Houghton-Mifflin Company, which position he held for over 20 years.

Donald Kline

Donald Kline, Zeta '31, died very suddenly in June in his office in Detroit, Mich. He was Detroit manager of the Binney Inspection Service Company, fruit and vegetable inspectors.

CHAPTER NUPTIAL

Geraldine Prior of Kansas joined the KDR family on September 12 when she and Ed Adams, Alpha, were made one. They've succeeded in renting an apartment in Middlebury where they are living while Ed continues his studies.

Miss Alyce Marion Gurseler of Plan-dome, Long Island, became Mrs. Lewis G. Ensinger (Alpha '44) on September 22 at Manhasset, Long Island. Kappa Delta Rho executive secretary, Ferd B. Jack, a Navy lieutenant for four years, served overseas in the Southwest Pacific. He is also a member of the Chicago Yacht Club, American Legion and the National Association of Life Underwriters.

He is president of the firm of Production Line Structures, a company which currently is turning out at least 150 California cabins a month. For the benefit of other brothers outside the Los Angeles area the company does not accept any mail orders.

KAPPING THE KLIMAX

Perhaps the most difficult thing for an editor to meet is a deadline. No matter what the date is, or how far ahead it has been set, someone always opines that it doesn't matter anyway—thereby leaving the poor editor in the stew.

A system that worked well for this issue might be of use to chapter publications. A personal letter was sent to each proprietor about a week before the deadline. It brought results for our chapter number.

Interrupting the procedure of getting out the news was a letter from Duane Deakins, Lambda '46, who not only proceeded to describe a sail on the broad Pacific but enclosed a $5 check for his 1946-47 alumni dues. He thereby becomes the first one to be paid for the school year just beginning.

Much could also be said about the famous steaks consumed by D.D., the president, John Blakeley, and yours truly, ye ed, following the final meeting at the Columbus Convention. This may now be printed since steaks are no longer an unattainable dream.

If anyone sees our honorable (sometimes he's called worse) executive see they might also ask him how he makes so many deadlines. Day after day, nor breath nor motion, arrive missiles, or is it missives, with some new item of news that he is sure ought to be in this issue—and he hopes it isn't too late. Let's hope he has a deadline on that manual so he knows the feeling.

Anyone stopping in at Nu chapter, Bloomington, please ask the boys how that good old Jersey brew tastes out in Indiana. It seems as if the stuff was practically non-existent out there, and when Herb Farrell and Bill Gale stopped at Rahway the rear of their Chevy was somewhat depressed. There was a slip somewhere along the way because when they reached Indiana, the fluid that makes a schmoker out of a smoker was still in Linden, N. J.

It was really amazing the recovery that President Blakeley made after his serious illness of last summer. Ordered by the doctor to take a complete rest for a considerable time, he went to Petersburg, Illinois to recuperate, then walked into the New York alumni dinner on September 13 as if he had been out of town for the week-end. You just can't keep a good Kappa Delta down.

In John's absence our v.p. Ed Van Kleeck has done a yeoman job of holding everything together until such time as John can take over again. "Doc" is assistant commissioner of education of the state of New York and as such has plenty to do, but he found time to direct KDR from Albany. Thus we have had three capitals in six months, Lowville, New York City and Albany.

Columns should not be the place for suggestions but the New York alumni without even trying collected dues from 11 members present at the fall dinner. The idea originated in California last spring and we recommend it to every chapter that plans a homecoming or alumni association that holds a meeting. It's much easier too. Just hand your two bucks to one of the boys and let him send it in. No fuss, no bother.

Let's have your suggestions for this column. Like the name? It's old, so perhaps some kind soul can unscramble Kappa Delta Rho so we can get all three in. Let's have your letters now and then—and don't get sore at the comments. Some of this stuff may not be for publication but methinks it makes interesting reading.

Present plans call for a Board of Directors meeting Saturday, November 30, in conjunction with the I.F.C. meetings in New York. Maybe we'll see some of you there. If not, write, don't telegraph.

And if we don't meet before then—
MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Lambda's Annual Banquet Oct. 4

The annual alumni-sponsored Banquet-Beerburst of Lambda chapter was held on October 4 in San Francisco at El Jardin Restaurant. Sixty-three actives and alumni helped to swell the record crowd.

The general character of the toasts by the actives was that of heartfelt thanks to the alumni who kept KDR spirit alive during the time when the actives were busy with the war. The alumni in return toasted the actives for the job they have done in reactivating Lambda as shown in the large, fine pledge class.
