FRATERNITY

FEBRUARY
1954

The profit which you derive from your fraternity membership depends on the good fellowship which it brings to you, on the lasting friendships which you make. It depends also on the extent to which you shoulder your share of the corporate responsibility of chapter life and on the way in which you live up to the high standards of conduct, scholarship and integrity which your fraternity has established.

WANTED!

Ideas and designs for a national KDR flag. Any chapters, actives or alumni are invited to submit, in black and white or color, the design that they would like to see adopted as the standard flag by all chapters and alumni groups.

A committee of four was appointed by President Maloney at the 1952 Convention to report to the 1954 conclave. Headed by Peter Dodge, Lambda '54, it is now busy collecting ideas from which its report to this year's convention will be made. Others on the committee include Robert Cooke, Xi '53; Art Bonneau, Theta '53; and Harold Roe, Kappa '53.

All correspondence should be directed to Peter Dodge, 2510 Le-Conte Ave., Apt. 101, Berkeley 9, Calif. All designs and drawings should also be sent to him directly before May 1st in order to receive consideration.

NIC Reorganizes;

Plans Better Service To Members; Holds Timely Panels

Three members of Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity represented the fraternity at the annual meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference held in Cincinnati, Ohio, November 27-28 and took part in one of the most significant meetings that the NIC has ever held. Representing the top level of KDRdom was the president, Dr. Robert G. Crosen. Along with him, Gordon Eldredge, member of the Board of Directors, and Don Wolfe, executive-secretary and past president of the College Fraternity Editors' Association attended the sessions and the banquet Friday evening.

Significant action was taken on many problems confronting all fraternities. Among the two most controversial ones were (1) the reorganizing of the NIC so as to provide better service to the member fraternities and (2) the necessity of a statement by the fraternities setting forth their independence in the choosing of members without restriction by any non-member.

Resolutions were passed on the following:

(1) Asserting the right of member fraternities to adopt qualifications for membership free from any interference or restriction by any non-member.

(2) Reorganizing the structure of the National Interfraternity Conference by setting up a House of Delegates that will assume responsibility for the function and organization of the agencies of the NIC.

(3) Increased the annual dues of all members to provide adequate funds to carry on the activities of the NIC more effectively.

(4) Authorized the appointment of a committee to make a careful study of the statistics upon which the all-fraternity average and the all-men's average are computed to determine whether the comparison is fair in that the all-men's group often includes semi-professional or graduate non-fraternity students.

(5) Directed that the future reports of the Standing Committee on Scholarship concerning the scholarship of member fraternities shall not be published in code.

Autonomy Resolution

Considerable discussion resulted on the so-called autonomy resolution setting forth the right of fraternities to adopt qualifications for membership applicable to all its chapters free from any interference or restriction by any non-member. Some contended that the provisions of the resolution were obviously our right and that a resolution was superfluous. Others argued that to pass such a resolution would be to place ammunition in the hands of our enemies.

The resolution as finally passed reads:

Whereas, the national fraternity system has over the years made notable contributions to the educational programs of colleges and universities of the United States and Canada; and

Upholds Autonomy

Whereas, the National Interfraternity Conference earnestly desires that these contributions shall be continued and, if possible, expanded; and

Whereas, such contributions have been made possible largely as the result of the character of the membership of fraternities, especially with regard to unity of purpose and compatibility of interests; and

Whereas, anything that tends to dissipate that unity of purpose and compatibility of interests weakens the capacity of fraternities to make such contributions to the educational structure;

Be It Resolved: (1) That in the opinion of the National Interfraternity Conference, each member fraternity should have the right to adopt qualifications for membership applicable to all its chapters free from any interference or restriction by any non-member;

(2) That any attempt to restrict or regulate the right of a fraternity to choose its own members from among students in good moral and scholastic standing in any college or university in which it has a chapter is an inadvisable interference with the democratic process of self-government and with the fundamental principle of free association.

(3) That in accordance with such principles, The National Interfraternity Conference declares itself in favor of fraternity autonomy with respect to fraternity membership.

Note: The word "fraternity" as used herein means the national or international governing body of any charter-granting fraternal organization.

"From among students in good . . . scholastic standing," as used herein, means that no objection is intended to the enactment by local college authorities or interfraternity agencies of regulations setting minimum grade requirements for pledging and initiation.

House of Delegates

Climaxing two years of work in research and discussion among the members of the NIC a revised constitution was presented and passed calling for the setting up of a House of Delegates to meet twice a year for the purpose of transacting all business pertaining to the functions of the NIC. Subsequently appointed by the president and elected by the Kappa Delta Rho Board of Directors was alternate board member Ferd B. Ensinger with Don Wolfe as alternate.

The reorganization affects Kappa Delta Rho in that it provides more services to the member fraternities, and also raises the annual dues to pay for such services. According to the new formula the KDR dues were raised about 50% over the old.

Timely Panels

Two panels were held on very timely subjects, the first being on the relationship of fraternities to educational institutions and the second being on selectivity. So much interest was evoked on the second subject that the NIC has

COMMUNISM

By J. EDGAR HOOVER

• You, the college student, whether or not you realize it, are the rich earth that the Communist conspirator hopes to till. Your mind is the soil in which he hopes to implant alien seed. Your subsequent acts are the products whose growth he strives to direct. The harvest that he seeks is the destruction of our democratic processes of government.

What then, can you, the college student, do about Communism? Awareness of danger is the first requisite in combating that danger. First then, know your enemy. That necessitates learning what Communism really means, not what its apologists say it means.

How is one to separate truth from propaganda? I can only say, "Set yourself the task of developing a free mind—a mind that seeks facts." Such a mind accepts neither the minority version nor the majority version; it seeks and considers evidence. It is not satisfied until irrefutable evidence points out a road that leads toward irrevocable truth.

When you have learned everything possible from the experience of those who escaped from "Utopia"—where they learned the bitter difference between promise and reality—then steep yourself in the history of America. Go back to the heart and soul of its origins. Read the documents, books, and letters of the immortal giants who, with faith and prayer and idealism, shaped and molded a form of government that is a continuous expression of faith in the individual. There you will learn that true Americanism is an act of faith—an overwhelming belief that the individual man, with God's help, is an intelligent being capable of self-rule. That faith is essential to the continuance of the American form of government.

In its simplest terms, the struggle lies between the spiritual and the material. The Communist seeks to rob you of your birthright by destroying your faith in our republic. The mess of pottage that he offers in tempting the weak, the shallow, and the short-sighted is the illusory promise of material security—the security of the slave. The Communist offensive must never be underestimated, for that promise has seduced millions of people and the ultimate objective is to swing all the peoples of the globe into the Communist orbit. Like the confidence man, therefore, the Communist labors incessantly to get his victims in the proper frame of mind—to "set up the suckers for the kill." Diligently and indiscriminately he pours his corrosive acid of disunity, hatred, and discontent over the worker, the professor, the artisan, the student.

What can you do to combat it?

COMMUNISM is the antithesis of Christianity. To indorse Communism is to deny all the tenets of Christianity—the great teachings that have guided our civilization during the dark ages of mankind's long, upward climb toward the light. You can be Christian.

COMMUNISM is immoral. The Communist teaches that the end justifies the means. You can live positively. You can promote the dynamic morality that is essential to the preservation of a free nation.

COMMUNISM seeks "fronts." Don't provide protective coloring for subversive organizations by being an indiscriminate "joiner." Ascertain the ultimate objectives of groups that mouth platitudes and espouse causes before you lend the strength of your name to their petitions and their rolls.

COMMUNISM feeds on ignorance. Be informed. Never yield to the disastrous luxury of emotional or "fuzzy" thinking. Stick to the facts.

COMMUNISM seeks change. It would make the State the master and the individual the slave. You, therefore, need to gain a true understanding of the republic in which the individual is the key. Our form of government is only as good as the people in it. Consequently, it cannot be perfect. But, active and intelligent effort has made it function in such a manner that it has been the marvel and the envy of the world. You hold the future in your hands. Be a crusader for democracy.

COMMUNISM lives on lies. It corrodes honor, destroys integrity, and subverts all the qualities that combine in an individual to make him, in the truest sense, a man. Wherever there is an honest man, there is an island of strength. Live honorably.

COMMUNISM wears a cloak of many colors. Learn to recognize these colors, and no act of yours will tend to bring to fruition the destructive harvest that the Communist seeks—and toward which all his efforts are bent.

KDR is Veep of Purdue FAA

Fraternities and fraternity advisers on many campuses can learn much from a study of the Fraternity Advisers Association of Purdue University. Officers consist of a president, a vice-president and a secretary-treasurer. Present vice-president is W. O. Satterley, adviser to Theta Chapter, and untiring worker for the betterment of his house. Like the other officers and members of the association he works unceasingly for the good of every fraternity on the Purdue campus also.

One of the goals of the association has been better scholarship. Last year every fraternity on the Purdue campus was above the all-men's average, a record achieved only by superior advisership and an energetic interfraternity council. The IFC also issues a mimeographed paper "The Purdue Greek", giving news of interest to fraternity men.

The Fraternity Advisers Association was founded in 1929 to work with fraternities for the betterment of each individual organization. Composed of business men of Lafayette and staff advisers, the association proved its worth during the war years when it aided in the upkeep of the houses and in solving many complicated financial problems brought on by decreased enrollment.

Although the association holds no closed meetings and can take no official action, problems faced by all fraternities are on the agenda. Dean Don Mallet addressed the first meeting of the year on "How Student Organizations Can Serve the University and Themselves". The next meeting will be devoted to a discussion of the pros and cons of the deferred rushing system. Greek Week and other fraternity functions are actively supported by the association. At the annual banquet in May they award a scholarship trophy to the fraternity showing the greatest scholastic improvement during the past year.

Kappa Delta Rho is pleased to be a part of such an association as this and proud that one of its most active advisers is recognized by election to an office in it. W. O. 'Bill' Satterley is truly one of KDR'S most active advisers.

Delta, Zeta Win Scholarship Cups for 1952-53

Congratulations to Delta Chapter at Colgate University and Zeta Chapter at Pennsylvania State University on winning the Kappa Delta Rho Scholarship cups for the school year 1952-53. A complete report for all chapters, released by former Scholarship Commissioner Crosen shows that Delta Chapter won the cup for the highest achievement in scholarship while Zeta puts the one for the greatest improvement on the mantle for a year.

Both had admirable records for the past school year. Besides winning the cup for the highest scholastic achievement the Colgate

Chapter had six men elected to Phi Beta Kappa, a factor, to be sure, in giving them such a high ranking. Zeta Chapter with a 10.08 improvement over the previous school year came close to capturing both trophies with a mere 1.64 separating them from Delta for the highest achievement.

This marks the last report of Dr. Crosen, who took over the duties of President last August. The report for 1953-54 will be issued by the new scholarship adviser, O. D. Roberts, assistant dean of men at Purdue University.

The complete report of all chapters:

In the above tabulation all chapter averages have been rendered comparative nationally by application of the N.I.C. formula.

These data lead to the following pronouncements:

- 1) Delta Chapter is the winner of the National Award for Highest Achievement in the year 1952-53.
- 2) Zeta Chapter is the winner of the National Award for Greatest Improvement in 1952-53 over 1951-52 in scholastic achievement.
- 3) Psi was not chartered until the close of the period of the competition and for that reason, in spite of its unusual and gratifying achievement, could not be considered for the trophy. However, they stand on the same footing as all other KDR chapters for the next competition.
- 4) We deeply regret that data for Beta Chapter could not be included. No one has been able to obtain data from the Registrar at Cornell.

IN THE HEADLINES

Dean William I. Myers, Beta '14, makes more headlines than any other KDR at the moment. Newsweek of November 30, 1953 carried his picture as a consultant to Secretary of Agriculture Benson. Brother Myers is chairman of the Agriculture Advisory Committee currently studying the controversial price support system.

REGRETS

Time and space prevent the acceptance of many kind invitations. Your editor regrets that he was unable to attend the inauguration of Henry A. Dixon as president of Utah State Agricultural College on March 8. Kappa Delta Rho, nevertheless, wishes the new president much success as leader of one of our western colleges.

DEAN OF FRATERNITIES

Howard G. Neuberg, Illinois '52, became assistant dean of men in charge of fraternities at the University of Illinois February 1st. He had spent the past two years in Europe, the last nine months as news chief for the Blue Danube Radio Network.

Brother Neuberg, who was active in fraternity affairs as an undergraduate, was consul of Eta Chapter in 1952. His appointment is a part time position for he will take graduate work in the Division of Communications. A graduate of the school of journalism, Howie was secretary of the Board of Fraternity affairs and vice-president of Inter-fraternity Council while an undergraduate. He is also a member of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

As news chief for the Blue Danube Network he was responsible for two newscasts daily, as well as a half-hour musical show. He explains that most of the programs were recorded shows from the United States, minus advertising. They were broadcast purely for the entertainment of American forces in Austria, according to Howie.

"Many people seem to think that the Blue Danube Network is a propaganda agency", he states "but that is not so". The main purpose of the radio programs is to entertain the service men abroad, and that is all they attempt to do.

Neuberg was an accredited foreign correspondent while in Austria and was allowed the freedom of travel that goes with that position. He saw much of the country in his travels and enjoyed them more because he could speak and write German fluently. Before taking over the job he had spent a year in study in Europe, mostly in Switzerland.

His newscasts over the Blue Danube Network, he explains, were made up chiefly of material from behind the Iron Curtain that came from monitoring Red radio stations such as Radio Bucharest and Radio Prague. Many of his news items from Red countries, he said, were broadcast for the first time over the Network.

Adventure was his, too, from time to time. One of his most interesting 'beats' was that of interviewing a family that escaped to freedom from behind the Iron Curtain, ending up in the security of the American Zone. The family, a Czech grandfather, daughter, son-in-law, and their two children, made a small hole in a box-car full of wood and hid in it for several days. Wrapping themselves in tar paper to keep the dogs at the border off their scent, they arrived in the American Zone on Thanksgiving Day.

Prior to his position with the Network Howie studied German and French in Switzerland. A previous issue of The Quill and Scroll carried an article giving a European's impressions of Americans as he found them. After completing his studies he took a position with the International Telecommunications Union, an agency of the United Nations and the oldest international organization in existence. While with the ITCU his headquarters were in the Palais Wilson, the place where the League of Nations was born and which was named for President Wilson.

Brother Neuberg's experience was varied, and leaves him with a perspective of Europe that supplies him with comments and stories on all phases of life there today. He even spent 11 days on a cattle boat crossing the Atlantic on his way to his new job as dean of fraternities at the University of Illinois. His new position should prove to be another adventure in his already adventurous life.

Gordon Eldredge, Member of the Board of Directors and adviser to Kappa Chapter, represented Kappa Delta Rho at Ohio State Greek Week, February 15-20. He attended the dinner on the 16th at which national representatives from all fraternities were present. Chapter advisers also were present to meet with actives and national officers of other fraternities.

ACROSS THE EDITOR'S DESK

ACTIVE ADVISER?

Chapters having active advisers are doubly blessed; first in the fact that the members have an interested, experienced person to confer with, and secondly, that the house has a champion on the campus and in town. An active adviser also gives a continuity to the affairs of the house since the membership changes continuously.

Advisers who are active also recognize that they have another obligation; to make their fraternities an integral part of the educational experience of the college. This they recognize at Purdue, for instance, where advisers form an association for discussion of and support of worth-while fraternity projects. Fraternities have common problems and a good adviser recognizes that by common action much more can be accomplished.

The principal objective of a fraternity, in our estimation, should be the development of self-reliance in each individual member. Anything or anybody who contributes to this development should be considered an integral part of the college. A college that contributes to this goal by its administration and advice is helping to make the leaders of tomorrow. It is just that which we are trying to do in fraternities.

Unfortunately all colleges do not take this stand. Too often the administration considers the fraternity house a part of the dormitory system over which they must hold the rigid hand of authority. Just how much self-reliance this develops in our future leaders is very questionable.

The adviser is an important person in a fraternity house. He has no vote, no legal power, it is true; yet he can express his experienced opinion at meetings both formal and informal. His younger fraternity brothers should respect his judgment and he should respect theirs in the growth of this self-reliance. His is a big job and he who does it right deserves all the praise we can give him.

This is why we are pleased to see organizations like the Purdue Fraternity Advisers Association. It is definite proof that they take their jobs seriously. Purdue fraternity men ought to be better men for it.
