WANTED!

New Contributors to the Loyalty Fund. Elsewhere in this issue we have asked for 5000 alumni who can spare the grand sum of $1.00 for the Loyalty Fund of your fraternity. Wouldn't it be a great gift to the actives if we could start off the second 50 years with a large enough surplus to help them with their publications and their rushing? The next thing we need is a Song Book. Won't you help just a little to get it for them?

USE COUPONS

ALUMNI: do not hesitate to use any or all of the coupons contained in this issue. A brand new copy of THE QUILL AND SCROLL will be sent to you for your files on request if you mutilate or cut up this one. Simply make a note on the coupon or send a separate request to the editorial office in Stockton, N. J. We'll be more than delighted to honor your request.

Additional Contributions

Contributions from the following to the 1955 (last year's) Loyalty Fund were received too late for inclusion in the list printed in the February issue:

Charles W. Murdock
Thomas H. Mott
Dr. Harold Osborn
Floyd Baughman

History of Kappa Delta Rho

The start of a second fifty years recalls the beginning at Middlebury at the turn of the century

(Excerpts from the History of Kappa Delta Rho, now available in your national office.)

Beginning of Kappa Delta Rho

GEO. E. KIMBALL, Alpha '06

(from The Quill and Scroll of Kappa Delta Rho, January 1926)
As one of the founders of Kappa Delta Rho, I have often been asked to relate the story of the origin and early history of the Fraternity. At this kind invitation of Brother Johnston I am writing a brief account of the early days of Kappa Delta Rho, which I hope may be of interest to the brethren.

In 1905, the year in which Kappa Delta Rho was founded, the situation at Middlebury in regard to fraternities, was as follows. There were chapters of three men's fraternities on the campus, Chi Psi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Delta Upsilon, all of which had been founded before the Civil War. At this time the college was beginning to increase in membership and yearly a large number of men were left outside the fraternities. An attempt was made to solve the problem by the establishment of a Commons Club, but the nature of such an organization made it necessary to admit all who sought membership and the undertaking was not a success.

I had been president of the Commons Club and in considering this problem had begun to wonder if it were not possible to organize another fraternity to include those of the oldest Commons Club who found themselves congenial. One day in the spring of 1905, Irving T. Coates, and John Beecher came to my room at 14 Painter Hall and broached the same idea. The more we talked the matter over the more feasible it seemed. We finally decided to approach seven other men, who were closely associated with us, and if they, or most of them, approved, to organize a new fraternity. All without exception were enthusiastic and Kappa Delta Rho was launched into the world. I do not recollect the exact date on which the fraternity was established, but the place was undoubtedly 14 Painter Hall. The ten charter members were: George E. Kimball, Chester M. Walch, Geno A. Ratti, Thomas H. Bartley, Pierre W. Darrow, Benjamin E. Farr, Irving T. Coates, John Beecher, Roy D. Wood and Gideon R. Norton. Roy W. Spooner '08, who joined the following fall, was in full interest and sympathy with us and was in all but name a charter member.

C. M. Walch, G. A. Ratti and I were selected to draft a ritual, choose a name, motto, and draw up a constitution. There has grown up a tradition, in regard to the initials, to the fact that they stand for the names of three of the founders, Kimball, Darrow, and Ratti. Like many traditions this is without basis in fact. The name was chosen in this manner. I thought two things essential, that the name should not be that of any existing fraternity, and that it should include at least one distinctive Greek letter. After consulting Baird's Manual, I decided upon the name finally chosen. We then adopted a motto appropriate to the letters which were put into euuphonius Greek by Walch. We had found that many of the fraternities had named their officials from those of the Greek City Republics, as Archons, etc. We decided to take our nomenclature from that of the Roman Republic. the stern virtues of whose early days we hoped to emulate. In view of this latter fact, the motto "Honor Super Omnia" seemed appropriate. The colors, orange and blue, were chosen as those typifying freedom and justice. The coat of arms was designed by Ratti sometime later. The ritual caused us much anxious thought and as we wrote seemed to stand for the ideals we wished to follow. It has stood the test of time better than we could have anticipated and though it has been revised to fit new conditions nothing worthwhile in the old version has been omitted.

Although fully organized in the Spring of 1905, we did not announce the birth of a new fraternity until our return to college in the fall. We suffered a serious loss in the fact that Beecher and Coates, who had so much to do with our founding did not return. We received much friendly help and counsel from Henry Harvey, '04, who was chosen our first honorary member. Kappa Delta Rho was received in a friendly spirit by the other fraternities and at once began to play a prominent part in college life. The faculty evidently did not take its advent too seriously for when it was announced at a faculty meeting that a new fraternity had appeared on the campus, someone asked, "What is the name of the new frat?" "Some Greek combination ending in Rho" was the answer. Upon which one of the faculty remarked that in his opinion the new order would have a "hard row." (Only a few years later the president of the college stated that he hoped Kappa Delta Rho would not get all of the best men).

It has been a source of much pride and gratification to the early members of Kappa Delta Rho that it has developed into a National fraternity instead of being absorbed as a chapter of some other society. As far as I am aware the only attempt ever made by Kappa Delta Rho to join a National was during the first year of its existence. Circumstances which I do not recall led us to a correspondence with the New England representative of Delta Tau Delta, an Episcopal clergyman at Woodstock, Vt., whose name I have forgotten. He sent a cordial invitation for two officers of Kappa Delta Rho to come to visit him and talk things over. Walch and I went to Woodstock and had a very pleasant visit. After telling about our chapter, its ideals and plans the reverend gentleman stated that he would approve a petition from Kappa Delta Rho to the next convention of Delta Tau Delta. Such a petition was subsequently drawn up and presented to the convention. It was received very kindly and although it was not granted, we were informed that if it were renewed after two years it would probably be acted upon favorably. When that time came, however, we had decided that we preferred to "paddle our own canoe" and took no further action in the matter.

As we were all undergraduates we did not fully realize the need of some older officers to act in an advisory capacity. We did provide for three Alumni Senators, but usually these officers found it difficult to meet.

The office soon became more of an honorary position than anything else. The problem has been solved in part by our national organization. I feel that the "Quill and Scroll" has done much to awaken and sustain Alumni interest and cooperation.

I had the honor of being the first Consul of Kappa Delta Rho and also its first Senator. During the years which have passed since its founding I have watched its growth with pride and satisfaction. The part which I was permitted to take in its organization I shall ever regard as one of the best things which has been granted me to accomplish in life. It is not given to many of us to "find Rome brick and leave it marble" but I am certain that all the Charter Members of Kappa Delta Rho feel that in its founding we did something which has resulted in good to others as well as to ourselves.

Alpha Chapter MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

MIDDLEBURY, VT.

HISTORY:

Under the leadership of the late George E. Kimball, '06, this chapter was formed from members of the then existing Commons Club in Painter Hall on May 17, 1905. It was incorporated under Vermont law on May 6, 1912 as "Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity of Middlebury College."

The chapter existed as an independent organization until the Beta Chapter was organized by Harold A. Severy, Alpha '09, at that time a graduate student at Cornell. Chapter rooms were originally in the Dyer Building down town and then in the Atwood Building until the present property was purchased about 1917 from the estate of Dean Walter E. Howard. The chapter house is located at 48 South Street, Middlebury, Vt., adjacent to the College Athletic Field. The house has been remodeled several times and provides accommodations for some twenty men and a House Mother. The "Alpha Alumni of Kappa Delta Rho, Inc." a Vermont corporation formed April 18, 1928, holds title to the chapter house which is leased to the active chapter. Except for periods during World Wars I and II when the fraternity system at Middlebury was practically disbanded, Alpha has been a leader among Middlebury fraternities in scholarship, athletics and social activities.

Alpha is proud of the 547 men who have joined her ranks in the past fifty years. As of this writing, 41 men are in the active chapter, 474 are living alumni and 32 have joined the Chapter Eternal.

Going to the Convention?

Here's all the information you need about the Golden Jubilee Convention at Middlebury College, August 30-September 2, 1956

(Reservation blank on inside back cover)

Although 1955 was the exact date of the 50th anniversary of the founding of Kappa Delta Rho, the celebration has been set for August 30, 31 and September 1, 2, 1956 because of the biennial convention dates set up in the constitution. Middlebury, Vermont is the place of celebration as it was the scene of the founding and the entire Breadloaf School ten miles east of Middlebury is being reserved for delegates, visiting alumni and family and friends. (See inside back cover for schedule of rates and reservation

RESERVATIONS NECESSARY. Reservations for all KDR's and their families are necessary and essential unless you plan to roam the Vermont Countryside in quest of accommodations. There is plenty of room for all, but the commissary as well as the registration committee in charge of rooms must know ahead how many to prepare for. This applies as well to the Grand Golden Jubilee banquet to be held on Saturday evening. Reply cards are being mailed to all Vermont alumni; all others must use the registration form on the back cover.

August is vacation month in Vermont so accommodations elsewhere will be scarce. There will be plenty of room for all at Breadloaf, but linens and meals will have to be prepared for before your arrival. We will not guarantee to take care of anyone without reservations. Make sure that yours are in.

TRANSPORTATION: Travel to Middlebury is best by auto (see inside front cover for map), but

Co-Chairman

IVAN D. HAGAR

for those who must travel by train all possible help will be available. Buses run regularly between Albany and Middlebury connecting with the New York Central at Albany. Buses leave from the Grevhound terminal in Albany at 7:00 A.M., 12 Noon, 4:15 P.M. and 6:15 P.M. for Middlebury. trip takes a little less than 5 hours. Buses also run directly from Boston to Middlebury. The nearest stops on the Delaware and Hudson are Whitehall, Vt., or Port Henry, N. Y., so if you plan to come D&H make arrangements with the committee to have someone meet you. There are no buses from Whitehall or Port Henry to Middlebury. Essex Junction is the nearest stop on the Central Vermont, coming in from Montreal. Here again arrangements must be made with the committee to have someone meet you.

Transportation to Breadloaf will be provided from Middlebury as will also transportation to the dedication of the Memorial Plaque on the Middlebury campus Saturday afternoon.

Consult your local ticket agent for railroad schedules. Your AAA or local gas station will help you plan your trip by auto.

Be sure to notify the local committee in case you want to be met upon arrival in Vermont.

PROGRAM: A schedule of activities is given elsewhere in this issue. It will be adhered to as strictly as possible. Meals will be served promptly and only at the time specified.

DEDICATION: A Memorial Plaque commemorating the founding of Kappa Delta Rho will be dedicated at Old Painter Hall on Saturday afternoon, September 1st. Funds for the plaque were taken from Loyalty Fund contributions of more than 500 alumni who contributed so generously to this all purpose fund in 1955.

GRAND BANQUET: The grand banquet has been scheduled for 7 P.M., Saturday, Sept. 1st in the main dining room of Breadloaf Inn. The program is not quite complete at this writing but we can tell you that your toastmaster will be Grant W. Johnson, distinguished member of Alpha chapter and presently member of the New York State Assembly. The main speaker will be George Starr Lasher, distinguished Theta Chi editor and editor of Baird's Manual. A picture and more complete biography appear elsewhere in this issue.

COMMITTEE: Members of the active Alpha chapter will assist the alumni committee in making certain that all guests will remember Vermont hospitality. Locally in Middlebury, Ivan D. Hagar, P. O. Box 30, Middlebury is in charge of arrangements and details. He is ably assisted by George E. Shaw and Hilton P. Bicknell, both of Alpha chapter.

If you need help in planning to attend, Brother Hagar will be glad to answer your questions. Your national office will also take care of any requests for information. Simply address your national office

George Starr Lasher Convention Speaker

Known as Mr. Greek by the 62 members of the Inter-fraternity Conference, George Starr Lasher, who will address the grand banquet of the Golden Jubilee Convention, is one of the most beloved men in the fraternity world today.

A past president of Theta Chi, founder of the school of Journalism at Ohio University, Mr. Lasher has long been a champion of fraternities and one of the most ardent spokesmen in their cause. He has helped personally to install nine Ohio University groups into national fraternities and sororities.

His journalism career has been no less active. He has been editor of the Theta Chi Rattle for 30 years and director of publicity for the National Interfraternity Conference for many years. His knowledge of fraternities has led to his selection as editor of the sixteenth edition of Baird's Manual of American College Fraternities, a 1000 page directory for more than 300 collegiate organizations.

Mr. Lasher was director of the Ohio University School of Journalism until 1951, when he retired from that position. He continued to instruct courses in the school until this year, when he retired from all active work in the school.

Always actively interested in fraternities, he can be found at almost every fraternity or sorority dance on the Ohio University campus, sometimes attending five or six in one evening. His advice is often sought by many of the groups on his campus.

Kappa Delta Rho is fortunate in securing Mr. Greek for its Jubilee Banquet, for more than a Theta Chi, George Starr Lasher is the champion of the small intimate group in fraternities that will per-

Acting Chairman Of Citizens Council

Ralph Gottshall, Lafayette '27, was recently named Acting Chairman of the National Citizens Council for Better Schools.

The Council succeeds the National Citizens Commission for Public Schools, formed in 1949 for the purpose of arousing and stimulating interest in the problems of the public schools. It has the task of coordinating the work of 10,000 committees of local citizens in the same work.

The new Council was formed to sustain over a continuing period the interest generated by the Commission whose charter was for six years. In the coming months Council Memberships will be completed, a program of action decided upon and a permanent chairman chosen. Roy Larson was chairman of the Commission.

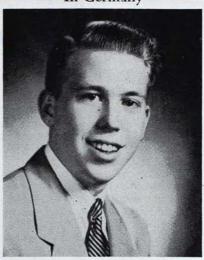

Ralph is also a life trustee at Lafayette and past chairman of the Alumni Council. He is president of the Atlas Powder Co., of Wilmington, Del.

Returns to States

Robert W. Stalker, Purdue '52, expects to return to the states in July of this year from Yokohama, Japan, where he is stationed with the Army.

At graduation Bob took a position with the Sundstrand Machine Tool Company in Rockford, Ill. He was sent in 1953 to Spokane, Wash, where he worked as a civilian technical representative at Fairchild Air Base. He was inducted into the Army late in 1954.

While in Spokane he met Miss Graciela Penalosa of Mexico City and was married to her in Kenmore, N. Y. on November 20, 1954. In Germany

Walter C. 'Toby' Struve, Lafayette '55, was the recipient in 1955 of a Fulbright scholarship to Germany for further study. While in Europe he has continued his studies in government and international relations which he began at Easton while an undergraduate. He was originally the recipient of a Ford scholarship at Lafayette, enrolling there directly after his sophomore year in high school.

Receives Gauss Award

Dr. Louis L. Martz, Lafayette '35, was honored on December 5, 1955 by receiving the Christian Gauss Award from the Senate of Phi Beta Kappa for his book, "The Poetry of Meditation," published by the Yale University Press.

Brother Martz, Professor English at Yale, won the prize for the best book published during the year by a university press on some subject in the field of literary criticism. His book is a study of English religious literature of the seventeenth century.
